

~Obituary~

Gwendolyn Denise Harris also know to everyone as “Skat Kat” was born to Carolyn Norwood and Larry Hinton of Tuscaloosa, Alabama on July 21, 1964. She was the eldest of five girls.

She had a passion for family and friends. She loved them and loved to have a great time with both. Her saying was “she had one life to live and she was gonna live it” and she stood by that.

Gwendolyn was preceded in death by her sister Doris Bonita Harris and her son Michael Jemaine Harris Jr.

She leaves to cherish her memories her three loving children, Sharon (Lajarvis) Wallace, Kenzarian Harris, and Deramus Harris; nine grandchildren, Tearra Cook, Kendrell Porter, Kamiya White, Kenzarian Harris Jr., Keylen Thomas, Kenzaria Pippin, Deramus Harris Jr., Dekeria Harris, and Kamiya Smith; mother, Carolyn (Benjamin) Norwood; father, Larry Hinton; three sisters, Patricia Harris, Brenda Harris, and Audrey (Mitchell) Brewer; a half-sister, Tabitha Washington and half-brother, Larry Hinton Jr.; a longtime partner, Michael Rollins; And a host of nieces, nephews, great nieces, great nephews, other relatives and friends.

Psalm 23

“The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:
He leadeth me beside the still waters.
He restoreth my soul; He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name’s sake.
Yea, though I walk through the valley of
The shadow of death, I will fear no evil;
for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.”

When I Lost You

I wish I could see you one more time Momma,
Come walking through the door,
But I know that's impossible,
I will hear your voice no more.

I know you can feel my tears
And you don't want me to cry,
Yet my heart is broken because I can't understand,
Why someone so precious had to die.

I pray that God will give me strength.
And somehow get through this,
As I struggle with the heartache that Came when I lost you.

Love your "Big Red"
Sharon
