

God Took Her Home

God saw her getting tired, a cure was not to be.

He wrapped her in his loving arms and whispered, 'Come with me.'

She suffered in silence, her spirit did not bend.

She faced her pain with courage, until the very end.

She tried so hard to stay with us, but her fight was not in vain.

God took her to his loving home and freed her from her pain.

You'll Live Always

It's true we bring nothing into this world, and nothing we take when we pass. So, the time in between we must use carefully, for only the memories will last. We hurt because you left us.

We cry because you're gone; with sorrow we must say goodbye, but your memory lives on.

Because of what you mean to us the loneliness will always remain. But because of all the love you gave, in our hearts, you'll live always.

Acknowledgement

The Family of Dianne Whitson acknowledges with sincerest thanks to each of you who have aided us and been kind at this difficult time. Your prayers, phone calls and all acts of kindness are gratefully appreciated. May God continue to keep and bless each of you.

A Celebration of Life

On March 25th, 1961, Dianne Whitson was born in Tuscaloosa, Alabama to Nubert Jr. and Rosie Whitson. In 1965, she relocated to Saginaw, Michigan at the age of 4, where she spent most of her adult life. Dianne had a charismatic personality that kept people laughing and having a good time. Dianne loved people and enjoyed entertaining and having family and friends around. She was a loving mother and grandmother and enjoyed spending time with her grandchildren. She would often have gatherings and welcomed her home to anyone and was always willing to help others. She enjoyed staying on the go, always thinking of new ideas. Dianne owned her own daycare program and embarked on other career opportunities in her lifetime as well. She was a great cook, and enjoyed singing, reading, and listening to good music in her free time. Dianne had a free spirit and meant so much to so many people. Whether she provided you advice, a place to stay, or a home cooked meal, it was all done with love. She was a devoted member of Daniels Den Ministries while living in Saginaw, MI. She made her transition on July 26th, 2018 to meet her Lord and Savior Jesus Christ, surrounded by her family who she loved and cherished dearly.
