

~Reflection of Life~

"To everything there is a season, a time and purpose under the heaven."

Ecclesiastes 3:1

Belinda Faye Jones was born into the life of Clyde Rufus Jordan and Sarah Marie Jones on January 17, 1958 in Tuscaloosa, Alabama.

At an early age Belinda dedicated her life to Christ and became a servant of the Lord. She joined Beulah Baptist Church and later in life became a member at The Greater New Testament Church (Impact Nation) of Tuscaloosa.

She was educated in the Tuscaloosa City Public School System. She graduated from Druid High School in 1975. She retired on February 1, 2013 after working 33 years at the Tuscaloosa VA Medical Center.

Belinda leaves to carry on her memories: her father, Clyde (Linda) Jordan of West Covina, CA, her mother, Sarah Jones of Tuscaloosa, AL, a daughter, Reyshunti Jones (Mr. Candy Brown); a granddaughter Kiaira Jones and a grandson Jayden Brown all of Tuscaloosa, AL; a brother, Clyde Jordan of West Covina, CA; and a host of nieces, nephews, aunts, uncles, cousins and friends.

Faye.

Your passing is hard to swallow, now that I won't see you tomorrow. I must say all the talks we had before, will never be no more, but I'm blessed to say, we had the best of times anyway. There's no one that can take your spot in my heart, but for now we must part.

Love you forever, Angie (Duck)

The Cord

We are connected, my child and I,
By an invisible cord not seen by the eye.
It's not like the cord that connects us 'til birth
This cord can't be seen by any on Earth.
This cord does it's work right from the start.
It binds us together attached to my heart.
I know that it's there though no one can see
The invisible cord from my child to me.
The strength of this cord is hard to describe.
It can't be destroyed; it can't be denied.
It's stronger than any cord man could create.
It withstands the test, can hold the weight.
And though you are gone, though you're not here with me,
The cord is still there, but no one can see.
It pulls at my heart, I am bruised...I am sore,
But this cord is my lifeline as never before.
I am thankful that God connects us this way
A mother and child, death can't take it away!
