

~Reflection of Life~

The Lord is my Shepherd, I shall not want. Psalms 23: 1

Rocefus Caine, son of the late John Caine and the late Virgil Caine, was born on September 23, 1933 in Fayette County.

At an early age, they moved to Northport, Alabama, where he professed his faith in Jesus Christ and joined New Zion Missionary Baptist Church under the late Rev. Jay A. Johnson.

He attended Tuscaloosa County Training School and retired from the Tuscaloosa Housing Authority. He owned Caine Limousine Service and Caine Lawn Service. He was a pillar of the community and was loved and cherished by all that knew him.

A devoted member of New Zion Missionary Baptist Church until his untimely death, Rocefus loved his church and served faithfully on the Usher Board, Men's Choir, Senior Choir, Trustee Board, Kitchen Committee, and Van Driver.

He was preceded in death by his father and mother, his brother James Caine, Sons: Rocefus Caine, Jr., Michael Taggart, and Randall Carl Caine.

Rocefus leaves to cherish his memories his sister, Lucy Nell Little, daughter, Penelope Prewitt; Son, Stanley Caine; Grandchildren – Shatasha Griffin, Michael Stewart, Sanovia Williams, Dominique (Joshua) Degraffenried, SSGT Broderick Prewitt, Jasmine Prewitt; Great-grandchildren – London Prewitt and Broderick Prewitt Jr.; A host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and loved ones. A special thanks to his nieces Veronica Little and Marilyn Little for your love, support, and all the hard work you did for him.

Rocefus lived a full and exciting life. He was loved by all who knew him. He will be sorely missed and cherished in memory by his family and friends.

Committal

All My Tears

When I go, don't cry for me
In my Father's arms I'll be
The wounds this world left on my soul
Will all be healed and I'll be whole.
Sun and moon will be replaced
With the light of Jesus' face
And I will not be ashamed
For my Savior knows my name.

It don't matter where you bury me,
I'll be home and I'll be free.
It don't matter where I lay,
All my tears will be washed away.

Acknowledgement

The family of the late Rodefus Caine wishes to express our sincere thanks for all prayers, cards, calls, text, and visits during our time of bereavement. May God continue to bless you all.
