

~Reflection of Life~

Dorothy Brown King was born August 1, 1931 to Nancy Brown Walto and Jessie Jones in Tuscaloosa, AL. She was educated in the Tuscaloosa City Public School System. She was preceded in death by her mother and father; one brother, Prince Brown, and a special nephew, Benny Brown.

Dorothy accepted Christ at an early age at Beautiful Zion A.M.E. Zion Church. She was an active member of the church, serving as an usher, Beginner Sunday School teacher and church custodian. She was a member of the Parent Body of the Missionary Society, a member of the Trustee Board and a member of the Culinary Ministry.

Dorothy was a natural comedian and loved making people laugh. She really enjoyed cooking and was known for her special dishes including squash dressing, spaghetti casserole and sweet potato casserole. She loved gardening. She took pride in her gardens where she grew squash, greens and tomatoes as well as plants and flowers. She also enjoyed planting flowers in the flowerbeds at her church.

She leaves to cherish her memories, one daughter, Josephine Giles; three grandchildren, Candice Giles, New York; Yosef J. Giles Sr. (Christine), Georgia; Rashida Giles Felder (Kevin), North Carolina; five great-grandchildren, Yosef J. Giles Jr., Jocelyn Giles, Christopher Giles, Leah Felder, Joanna Felder; one sister, Rachel Skeet, Connecticut, a special cousin, Robin Tiggs (Reginald) and a host of other family and friends.

~ Love ~

*Love is patient. Love is kind.
It does not envy. It does not boast.
It is not proud. It is not rude.
It is not self-seeking.
It is not easily angered.
It keeps no record of wrongs.
Love does not delight in evil,
But rejoices with the Truth.
It always Protects.
Always Trusts, Always Hopes,
Always Preserves.*

I Corinthians 13: 4-7

"I have a Place in Heaven"

*Please don't sing sad songs for me.
Forget your grief and fears,
For I am in a perfect place,
Away from pain and tears.
It's far away from hunger
And hurt and want and pride,
I have a place in Heaven
With the Master at my side.
My life on earth was very good,
As earthly lives can go,
But Paradise is so much more
Than anyone can know.
My Heart is filled with happiness
And sweet rejoicing, too.
To walk with God is perfect peace,
A joy forever new.*
