

OBITUARY

Terry Lewis Scott [known to close friends as Scoop] was born in Tuscaloosa, AL to Lewis Scott, Jr. and Margie Williams Scott. He was the oldest of two children, and his younger brother, Tim, was truly his brothers keeper.

Terry viewed everyday as a celebration. Although he wasn't a religious person, he often listened to Bible discussions in hopes of learning more. He never had a problem with asking why or how come. He was helped to answer these questions from the Bible.

He was employed by Flower's Bakery and had many friends there. He was a quiet person unless he got excited about something. Terry enjoyed sports, especially football. He expired from complications following an accident.

He was preceded in death by his step-father, who he affectionately called "Mr. Beckley". Over the years, he often assisted him with many tasks and he always did them with a genuine smile.

He leaves to cherish his loving memory his mother: Margie Scott-Beckley; one brother: Timothy D. (Tasha) Scott; two nephews: Timothy Scott, Jr and Makhail M. Scott; five uncles: Larry (Sendena) Scott, Patrick Scott, Tony Williams, James Gales, and Emanuel Harris; four aunts: Betty Patton, Christine Horton, Shauna (Robert) Graves and Lisa (Samuel) Mensah; one great uncle: James Scott; one of his closest friends: Timothy Ross; extended family: Brenda (Willie) Hodges, Wanda (Jerry) Hampton, Alfreda Richardson, Autherine (Fredrick) Brown; and a host of other relatives and friends.

Song"He Will Call"

Closing Prayer

He Will Call (Job 14:13-15)

Life, like a mist, appears for just a day, Then disappears tomorrow. All that we are can quickly fade away, Replaced with tears and sorrow. If a man should die, can he live again? Hear the promise God has made:

(CHORUS)

He will call; The dead will answer. They will live at his command. For he will have a longing For the work of his own hand. So have faith, and do not wonder, For our God can make us stand. And we will live forever, As the work of his own hand.

Friends of our God, though they may pass away, Will never be forsaken. All those asleep who in God's mem'ry stay, From death he will awaken. Then we'll come to see all that life can be: Paradise eternally.
