Obituary

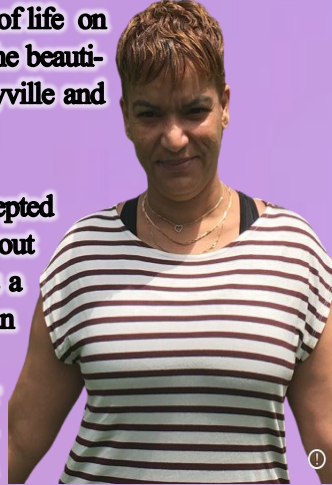

Tasaya Myra Yates was blessed with the gift of life on November 3, 1976 in Los Angeles, CA. She was the beautiful daughter of Ruby Yates and was reared in Caryville and Ft. Walton Beach, FL.

Being reared in a Christian home, Tasaya accepted Christ as her personal Savior and continued a devout Christian relationship throughout her life. She was a member of the Grace Community Church of Sun Valley, CA.

Tasaya enjoyed fishing, talking about her grandfather & children, watching Spongebob, gardening, her pets, playing video games (as she was still a kid at heart), and reading her bible daily (as she was always trying to strengthen her relationship with Jesus. She was always so full of life and vibrant. Tasaya had a joyous personality and always was laughing and smiling. She truly took interest in traveling and seeing God's natural beauty in the world alongside her husband.

Out of all her likes & interests, her true love and passion was for her husband and her children; who she thought was the world. She was a unique woman in her directness and was rarely misunderstood. Tasaya was always empathetic and always had compassion for others. She was very quick to give to others, even when she had little herself. She was focused on her treasure in Heaven much more than the prize the world had to offer.

Although she is gone, she will forever be in the hearts of her beloved husband: Michael Reddish of Detroit, MI; two beloved sons: Johnny S. Jones (Tierra Taylor) and Charles I. (Yana) Beale, both of Columbia, SC; beloved aunt: Thymol Yates of Caryville, FL; long best friend: Myriam "DeeDee"; along with a host of other relatives & friends.
