The Watcher

"Gram" always leaned to watch for us
Anxious if we were late,
In winter by the window,
In summer by the gate.
And though we mocked her tenderly
Who had such foolish care,
The long way home would seem more safe,
Because she waited there.
Her thoughts were all so full of us,
She never could forget,
And so I think that where she is
She must be watching yet.
Waiting 'til we come home to her
Anxious if we are late
Watching from Heaven's window
Leaning from Heaven's gate.

Life and Times

of

Anger Lee Williams (Red)

Anger Lee was born on February 29, 1926 to the late Mary Ann Wright and Henry Williams in Cuspid, Georgia.

She accepted Christ at an early age and joined Shiloh Missionary Baptist Church.

She loved helping others, and she was a housekeeper for many. She visited the sick at Signature Healthcare of North Florida everyday until her health declined. Later became a resident, where she was loved and adored by all.

She departed this life on January 31, 2015 at 6:15pm.

She is survived by two granddaughters: Ms. Cynthia A. Gibbs, her guardian; and Ms. Tiffany Tensley both of Youngstown, Ohio; two great-grandsons: Jonathan, Jr. and Jonas Ballard of Youngstown, Ohio; a cousin, Eva Walker, family and friends.

She was preceded by her parents, her only child, Charlie T. Gibbs and a brother, Stone-wall Jackson.
