

I know that it doesn't seem fair and I know that you're hurt but realize that we all must take this journey.

I know you're saying but why her Lord and I know you can't help but cry but realize that we all must take this journey.

I know that you think that my journey came too soon. But realize that we will never know the day or the hour that

God will request our presence.

Family accept the fact that it was my time to take this journey and when your time comes I will gently take your hand and lead you into His Heavenly land.

Obituary

On December 8, 2014, God decided that He was ready for Sharon Hayes to come to her Heavenly home.

Sharon Hayes was born in Noma, Florida on November 12, 1964 to the late Charles Hayes and Nearia Hayes-Davis.

She was preceded in death by her mother, Nearia Hayes-Davis; three brothers: Jeffrey Hayes, Terry Hayes and Daron Davis; a stepfather of thirty-seven years, Mr. Willie Davis also preceded her in death.

Sharon was a 1983 graduate of Popular Springs High School. She attended Chipola State College in 1983-1985 and Enterprise State College in 1986.

In 2003, Sharon started employment with the Holmes County Middle School and was a dedicated employee until her passing.

At the age of twenty-three Sharon met the love of her life, Mr. Steven James. Their love produced two children, Shanearia and Shane.

Sharon was a very loving mother figure to Steve's children Stanley and Steven Grubbs. All of whom will miss her and hold on to memories of her.

Sharon also leaves behind a sister, Cynthia Hayes (Frank) of Brownstown, Florida; five brothers: Edward Hayes (Donna), Luther Davis all of Noma, Florida, James Hayes (Mary) of Little Rock, Arkansas, Earl Davis (Amy) of Pace, Florida and Willie Davis, Jr. (Linda) of Boston, Massachusetts; a host of aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

I'll cherish the memories I have of you. The weekend walks and secret talks, the two of us really shared a lot.

Over the years we grew apart but there wasn't a moment that you weren't in my thoughts.

Fate brought us back together and once again we shared a lot of secret talks and seemed to read each other thoughts.

I'll miss you my dear but I take comfort in knowing that I will see you again and on that day we will share more of our secret talks.

Love,
Angie
