

My Dear Sister,

I will miss you! I love you but know God loves you best. Although it is hard, it is well with my soul for you to rest in eternity with mom, dad, and Ricky.

Change of Address

Dear Family and Friends,
I want you to know that I have moved.
I RECEIVED A CALL FROM God, the chief architect,
Who informed me that I could move in immediately.
You know that I have been sending my timber
And only the chief carpenter Jesus Christ could do.
Some were a little broad, or not long enough.
well, my new home is finished
and it is such a beautiful sight to behold!
It is located in an exclusive estate area
And it sits behind beautiful pearly gates
Just off a serene celestial shore.
Of course the streets are paved with gold and every day is Sunday here, I have been told.
I've lived many places before my new home was prepared and none of the others compare.
There is peace, joy and happiness here with no pain to bear, no strife or discontent.
There is only sweet serenity everywhere
And I could go on and on about my new home, but I have to get fitted for my wings.

My New Address Is:
Joyce Belinda Brown McCorvey
69 Glorious Years Lane
God's Town, Heaven 77777

Love You All,

*P.S. I don't have a phone yet, just call God.
If you don't have the number, He is listed in the Holy Book on every page.*

Obituary

A TIME TO BE BORN:

Joyce Belinda Brown McCorvey, the eldest child of the late James Luther Brown, Sr., and the late Annie Mae Brown, and sister of the late James Luther Brown, Jr., was born and reared in Newberry, South Carolina.

A TIME TO SERVE:

She accepted Christ as her personal Savior early in life and joined Bethlehem Baptist Church in Newberry, South Carolina. she continued to exercise her faith as a devoted member of Zion Hope Primitive Baptist while residing in Pensacola, Florida, until relocating to her hometown of Newberry, South Carolina.

Her early education was in the public schools of Newberry, South Carolina. She attended and graduated from Gallman High School in Newberry, South Carolina. She continued her education at South Carolina State University in Orangeburg, South Carolina, where she received her bachelor's degree in Elementary Education and a minor in Special Education. While at South Carolina State, she became a member of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Inc. Following her graduation from South Carolina State University, she attended Florida State University, where she earned a Master's in Education Administration.

She began her career as an elementary teacher in Greenville, South Carolina. She later became the Director of Special Education in Chesterfield, South Carolina. Joyce continued her career with the Florida Department of Education. She would complete her career as Director of Alternative Academic Programs. A highlight of her career was being selected as a fellow for the U.S. Department of Education under U.S. Secretary of Education, Dick Riley.

A TIME TO DIE:

In accordance with God's will, on Monday, December 19, 2022, Joyce was called home to God.

A TIME TO MOURN:

Precious memories remain with those who loved Joyce and the many lives she touched. She leaves to cherish her memories one sister, Beverly Chapman (Melvin) of Newberry, South Carolina; one aunt, Lessie Pearl Clark of Newberry, South Carolina; and a host of nieces and nephews, including devoted, dedicated nieces and nephew Andrea Tucker (Rodrick) of Columbia, South Carolina, Allison Chapman and Melvin Chapman, Jr. (Abriana) of Roswell, Georgia; a devoted caregiver, Shirley Wise, a devoted friend, Alvena Goudelock, numerous cousins, and friends.
