

Poem

And when great souls die
After a period peace blooms
Slowly and always irregularly
Spaces fill what kind of soothing
Electric Vibration, our senses restored,
Never to be the same, whisper to us.
They existed, They existed,
We can be better and be better
For they existed.

Afterglow

I'd like the memory of me
To be a happy one.
I'd like to leave an afterglow
Of smiles when life is done.
I'd like to leave an echo
Whispering softly down the ways,
Of happy times and laughing times
And bright and sunny days.
I'd like the tears of those who grieve
To dry before the sun
Of happy memories that I leave
When my life is done.

Expression of Appreciation

We, the family of Polly Ann Koon, thank all of our friends for your many expressions of sympathy and love. The prayers, visits, cards and kindness will always be remembered. May God bless you.
