You Tell Me I Am Getting Old...

You tell me I am getting old. I tell you that's not so!
The "house" I live in is worn out, and that, of course, I know
It's been in use a long, long while; It's weathered many a gale;
I'm really not surprised you think it's getting somewhat frail.
The color changing on the roof, the window getting dim,
My "house" is getting shaky, but my "house" isn't ME!
My few short years can't make me old. I feel I'm in my youth.
Eternity lies just ahead, a life of joy and truth.
I'm going to live forever, there; life will go on – it's grand!
You tell me I am getting old? You just don't understand,
The dweller in my little "house" is young and bright and gay;
Just starting on a life to last throughout eternal day.
You only see the outside, which is all that most folks see.
You tell me I am getting old? You've mixed my "house" with ME!

Expression of Appreciation

We are forever grateful to our family and friends who shared our grief during the loss of our mother and grandmother. Your prayers, visits and all acts of kindness shown are deeply appreciated and will always be cherished. May God bless and keep each of you.

Obituary

Mrs. Ida Mae Miller Gallman was born on October 1, 1922, in Newberry County, South Carolina, to the late Johnny Miller and Rosa Stewart Miller. She entered into the arms of Jesus on Tuesday, September 8, 2015, at her residence.

Mrs. Gallman attended schools in Newberry County and was a dedicated caregiver for many years. She received her Certified Nursing Assistant (CNA) degree while employed as a caregiver at the Lowman Home. She was employed with the Lowman Home for 20 years. She also retired from Palmetto Baptist Hospital after 30 years of service.

She was a member of Oak Grove Presbyterian Church, USA and served as a member of the Presbyterian Women, Oak Grove Burial Society and Mother of the church. She was also a member of the Woman's Home Aid Society #34.

Mrs. Gallman married the love of her life, Mr. Olin Gallman, Sr. seventy-six years ago and this union was blessed with one daughter and two sons.

She was preceded to Heaven by her husband, Mr. Olin Gallman, Sr.; her daughter, Mrs. Judith Ann Powe; and sister, Mrs. Beatrice Bedenbaugh.

Those who celebrate her life, cherish precious and loving memories are two sons, Olin Gallman, Jr. (Geneva) of Irmo, SC and Calvin Gallman (Lilly) of Columbia, SC; nine grandchildren, Cynthia Griffin and Antonia Griffin, reared in the home, William D. Gallman (Pam) and Tony Gallman (Naomi) of Irmo, SC, Christopher R. Gallman (Syeeda) and Sarah-Rose Gallman of Columbia, SC, Gail Gallman of Little Mountain, SC, Kenneth L. Griffin (Elyse) of Atlanta, GA and Fredrick Griffin (Roxanne), Deltona, FL; fourteen great-grandchildren; four great-great-grandchildren; and a host of other loving nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

Mrs. Gallman will be greatly missed. She was a lady who cared dearly for her family and served others. Denying of self and giving to others were her strongest qualities. She earned the respect of those she encountered.
