

Miss Me – But Let Me Go

When I come to the end of the road
And the sun has set for me,
I want no rites in a gloom-filled room,
Why cry for a soul set free?
Miss me a little – but not too long,
And not with your head bowed low.
Remember the love that we once shared.
Miss me – but let me go.
For this is a journey that we all must take,
And each must go alone.
It's all a part of the Master's plan,
A step on the road home.
When you are lonely and sick at heart,
Go to the friends we know.
And bury your sorrows in doing good deeds,
Miss me – but let me go.

You Are Not Forgotten

You are not forgotten, loved one
Nor will you ever be,
As long as life and memories last
We will remember thee.

We miss you now, our hearts are sore
As time goes by, we'll miss you more.
Your loving smile, your gentle face
No one can ever fill your place.

Obituary

*"And God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes;
and there shall be no more death, neither sorrow,
nor crying, neither shall there be any more pain;
for the former things are passed away."
— Revelation 21:4*
