

If Love

If love could have brought you back,
Back with your family is where you would be.

If love could have brought you back,
Away from death's clutches and our minds set free.

If love could have brought you back,
Family gatherings, eating and having a ball.

If love could have brought you back,
laughing and talking some telling it all.

If love could have brought you back,
We would be happy once again.

If love could have brought you back,
There would be no losses only a win!!!

But because we all have an appointed time,
Memories of you in our hearts we just have to rewind!

If Love Could Have Brought You Back!
