Miss Me – But Let Me Go

When I come to the end of the road
And the sun has set for me,
I want no rites in a gloom-filled room,
Why cry for a soul set free?
Miss me a little – but not too long,
And not with your head bowed low.
Remember the love that we once shared.
Miss me – but let me go.
For this is a journey that we all must take,
And each must go alone.
It's all a part of the Master's plan,
A step on the road home.
When you are lonely and sick at heart,
Go to the friends we know.
And bury your sorrows in doing good deeds,
Miss me – but let me go.

A Message To The Family

I view myself as being a kind and over giving person.
Take time to love and appreciate yourself. People will take and take as long as you keep giving. I love you all with all my heart.

Love Always,

Doris Gallashaw

Expression of Appreciation

We, the family of our beloved Doris Jean Gallashaw, are grateful to all of you for your comforting expressions of sympathy and love rendered during this sorrowful time. May God continue to shower his blessings upon you.
