

*Farewell family and friends
 We walked together many a year,
 The joy of ages past we shared;
 We laughed, we cried, we did our best.
 Today is not a final goodbye;
 For we shall one day meet again
 In a place where we will never depart,
 For the sweetness of God shall be ours;
 So until we meet again,
 Farewell, family and friends.*

God's Eternal Plan

*God gives us each the gift of life
 To cherish from our birth,
 He gives us friends and those we love
 To share our days on Earth.
 He watches us with loving care
 And takes us by the hand,
 He blesses us with countless joys
 And guides the lives we've planned.
 Then when our work on earth is done
 He calls us to His side
 To live with Him in happiness
 Where peace and love abide.*

Expression of Appreciation

We, the family of the late Ms. Hazel Dell Clark, wish to express our sincere gratitude for your many expressions of sympathy and love rendered to us during our time of bereavement. May God bless each of you.

Obituary

Ms. Hazel Dell Clark entered into the arms of Jesus on Sunday, July 12, 2020, at National Health Care of Laurens, South Carolina. Born March 7, 1954, she was the daughter of the late Miles and Elease Clark. Hazel Dell never met a stranger. She was well known for her leadership ability and mentoring skills. She had a nurturing and kind spirit and was always willing to help whenever needed.

Her formal education was received in the public schools of Newberry County. Hazel Dell graduated from Newberry High School in 1972. She went on to matriculate at Johnson C. Smith University where she became a proud member of Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, Inc., in the spring of 1974. She was also a member of the A P & B Society #40 and the Home Benefit Society #7. In 1976, Hazel Dell graduated with her BSW. She went on to further her education by attending Clemson University, where she received a Master of Arts Degree. Hazel Dell later completed her education by graduating from the University of South Carolina with her DSW.

Hazel Dell was a devoted and dedicated member of Bush River Baptist Church, where she served as a Trustee, a Sunday School Teacher, and other various committees in the church.

Professionally, Hazel Dell touched many lives throughout her community and employment. She was a motivational public speaker for different organizations and churches. Hazel Dell was a Social Worker for Newberry Mental Health and other agencies in Newberry County, and the Department of Social Services in Columbia, SC.

She was predeceased by a brother, Thomas Clark; and three sisters, Joe Ellen Irby, Doris Oxner and Renethia Grines-Coleman.

Those celebrating her life and cherishing precious and loving memories are three brothers, Myles Frank Clark (Jessie) of Greenville, SC, and Harold S. Clark and Robert L. Whitney both of Newberry, SC; two brothers-in-law, George Oxner of Prosperity, SC, and Thomas Coleman, Sr., of Newberry, SC; and numerous nieces, nephews and cousins, all of whom will grieve her passing, but rejoice that she is resting with the Lord.
