The Life and Legacy Of

Reverend Rosette D. Gallman

WIFE • MOTHER • GRANDMOTHER • PASTOR

Almighty God in His wisdom and divine providence saw fit to call home His faithful, devoted child from worldly cares to reward. Reverend Rosette D. Gallman (68), of 116 Byrd St, Prosperity, S.C., departed this life on Wednesday, July 22, 2020 at 1:34 pm at Prisma Health Richland Hospital.

She was born March 10, 1952 in Newberry County, South Carolina. Reverend Gallman was the fourth child and first daughter of the late Sam and Mildred (Wise) Davenport. Reverend Gallman attended the public schools of Newberry County, after which she moved to Columbia and graduated from Columbia High School. She furthered her studies at Waverly School of Cosmetology in Columbia, S.C. and received her cosmetologist license in 1979. Reverend Gallman was the owner of Nu-Image Beauty Salon where she remained a licensed, practicing cosmetologist for 33 years. She was also a Certified Inter-State Barber Cosmetology Examiner.

At an early age, Reverend Gallman accepted Christ, baptized and was a faithful member of Mt. Olive AME Church, Lever Chapel AME Church and Shiloh AME Church, throughout her life and maintained her faith in the Lord until she was called home. She had a very strong faith and believed in the power of prayer and would stop at any given time to have a word of prayer with whoever needed it. She realized her higher calling to serve her Lord and Savior Jesus Christ on March 17, 2007; Reverend Gallman conducted her initial sermon on September 30, 2007 and was licensed to preach as an Evangelist, at the second quarterly conference by Elder Joseph Postell in Newberry-Spartanburg District, on December 9, 2007.

Reverend Gallman attended Erskine Theological Seminary and became certified in Local Church Ministry in May of 2011. She was a proud 2015 honor graduate of Piedmont Technical College, where she earned an Associate Degree in Human Service. Reverend Gallman was a woman of strong faith who was deeply devoted to her family, excelled in entrepreneurship and was committed to enriching her community and serving her parishioners and the AME Church.

She was an ordained Minister in African Methodist Episcopal Church and as local Deacon by the Rt. Reverend Dr. Preston Warren Williams II on May 14, 2011, at Mt. Moriah A.M.E. Church, in Prosperity, S.C. Upon completing additional requirements, Reverend Gallman was later ordained as a local Elder in 2015. She served as a faithful, devoted Pastor of Mt. Zion AME Church in Jalapa, S.C. for 9 years. Reverend Gallman served as the African Methodist Episcopal Women in Ministry Coordinator for the Newberry District.

FINAL Scripture READING

Romans 8:31-35, 37-39

With God on our side who can be against us? Since God did not spare his own Son, but gave him up to benefit us all, we may be certain, after such a gift, that he will not refuse anything he can give. Could anyone accuse those that God has chosen? When God acquits, could anyone condemn? Could Christ Jesus? No! He not only died for us - he rose from the dead, and there at God's right hand he stands and pleads for us. Nothing therefore can come between us and the love of Christ, even if we are troubled or worried, or being persecuted, or lacking food or clothes, or being threatened or even attacked. These are the trials through which we triumph, by the power of him who loved us. For I am certain of this: neither death nor life, no angel, no prince, nothing that exists, nothing still to come, not any power, or height or depth, nor any created thing, can ever come between us and the Love of God made visible in Christ Jesus our Lord. This is the word of the Lord! Amen!

Reverend Rosette D. Gallman

In her beloved community, she enjoyed visiting various nursing facilities and volunteering by ministering to their spiritual needs. Reverend Gallman sponsored Dixie youth baseball league for over 25 years, served on Newberry and Prosperity Ministerial Association, Newberry Community Hall Commission, Ascension Hospice, and Prosperity Civic Center Commission. She also served as a board member for the Women on a Mission organization in Newberry, S.C. She was influential in the opening of the first transitional housing for women in Newberry County. Reverend Gallman enjoyed life, cooking and feeding anyone in the community, and serving her fellow neighbors. She never met a stranger. Reverend Gallman's favorite motto is, "If I can help somebody along the way, as we cross this path of life, then my living would not have been in vain."

In addition to her parents, Reverend Gallman was predeceased in death by her brothers, Bobby Davenport, Larry Davenport, Bennie Frank Davenport and Henry Sam Davenport; sister, Anna Watson.

Reverend Gallman leaves a lifetime of love and fond memories with her devoted husband, Councilman Allen Gallman, Jr. Their courtship began in 1968 and later led to holy matrimony June 8, 1975, for a total of 52 blissful years. Those left to cherish her memories include her husband, Allen Gallman, Jr.; son, Eric Dewayne Gallman (Kenyetta), of Columbia, SC, grandsons, Eric Dewayne Gallman, Jr and Kendall Allen Gallman; step-daughter, Jettie Payne, of Joanna, SC; brothers, Charles Davenport and Sammie Lee Davenport, both of Norristown, PA; Arthur Davenport, of Prosperity, SC; sisters, Claudia Clark (Sylvester) and Sadie Gallman, both of Prosperity, SC; brothers-in-law, Charles Gallman (Greta), of Saluda, SC; Murray Gallman (Ann) and James Gallman (Seria), and James Watson, all of Prosperity, SC; six sisters-in-law, Rhoda Gallman and Sarah Green, both of Prosperity, SC; Katherine Oxner (Jewel), of Lanham, MD; five aunts; devoted friends, Linda Robinson, Rev. Dr. Elaine Eskew, Jackie Singley, and Rev. JoAnn McIntosh; devoted physician/nurse practitioner, Keyonia Johnson and a host of loving nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends who will miss her dearly.
