

"When I Must Leave You"

Please don't say I gave up,
Just say that I gave in.
Don't say that I lost the battle,
For it was God's war to lose or win.

Please don't say how good I was,
But that I did my best.
Just say I tried to do what's right,
To give the most I could, not less.

Please don't give me wings or halos,
That's for God to do.
I want no more than I deserve,
No extras, just my due.

Please don't give me flowers
Or talk in hushed tones.
Don't be concerned about me now,
I'm well with God, I've made it home.

Don't talk about my illness
It's over and it's done.
Just see to all my family's needs,
Especially the little ones.

When you draw a picture of me,
Don't draw me as a saint.
I've done some good, I've done some wrong.
So use all your paint,
Not just bright and light tones.

The Twenty Third Psalm

The LORD is my shepherd;
I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green
pastures:
He leadeth me beside the still waters.
He restoreth my soul: He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake.
Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff
they comfort me.
Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over.
Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the LORD forever.
