Asleep

I've closed my eyes and fallen asleep,
So there's no reason for you to weep;
This is a debt we all must pay,
You will see me again someday.
I've endured pain and sometimes sorrow,
Now I don't have to worry about tomorrow.
But life for you must go on,
You must not worry because I'm gone.
You stood beside me all the way,
When I was down, you knew what to say ...
You always told me, "get some rest,"
Let me sleep now, I've done my best.
So please let me rest in peace,
The tears you're shedding soon will cease.
You'll soon realize this was meant to be,
I thank God because He came for me.

A Note of Thanks

We, the family of Johnnie O. Huggins, Sr., extend our appreciation and gratitude for the prayers, love, kindness, phone calls and sincere sympathy expressed during our bereavement.

Remembering Johnnie

Devoted father and grandfather; loving brother; dear uncle, faithful member, and friend.

Johnnie O. Huggins, Sr., "Huckle Buck", 72, of Thorndale, PA, departed this earthly life Tuesday, May 11, 2021, at the Reading Hospital in West Reading, PA.

Born January 30, 1949, in Marion Hospital in Marion, South Carolina. He was the son of the late Melvin Huggins, Sr., and Marie Brady Huggins. His nickname came from his mother-in-law Beatrice Harris.

Johnnie was educated in Walstonburg School District in Walstonburg, North Carolina. He attended Thaddeus Stevens College of Technology for his apprenticeship program where he learned to operate heavy equipment. Johnnie relocated to Coatesville, Pennsylvania in 1968 following his sister Jessie Mae Harris (Fleming) where he met and married Elizabeth Harris. They had four children: Marie Huggins and Monica Huggins both of Thorndale, Johnnie O. Huggins, Jr. (Sara), Kenneth L. Huggins, Sr. (Monica) of Coatesville, Ashley Janae Huggins of Philadelphia; 13 grandchildren; 1 great-grandson, 1 godson.

Johnnie leaves cherished memories to his sister, Jesse Mae Harris of Glenolden, PA, brothers, Cleveland Huggins (Dorothy) of Wilson, North Carolina, Benny Huggins (Barbara) of Lancaster, PA; 2 sister-in-laws of Coatesville; 3 brother-in-laws of Coatesville; special friend, John Dent and his companion Marie Hunter and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

Johnnie was employed by Tony DePaul & Sons, Seravellis, after which he was employed at Local Union 542 Operating Engineers until he retired in January of 2013. Johnnie was a member of Ushirika Fundi a non-profit organization where he also was an officer of the organization Operating Engineers of Solidarity Local 542.

Johnnie was a faithful member of Zion Hill Baptist Church in Philadelphia. He served on the men's choir, trustee board and was very dedicated to the maintenance operations around the church.

Johnnie could fix anything. He always kept a nice car. He enjoyed shopping, loved to dress, and stayed sharp. He enjoyed all kinds of sports. He especially liked baseball, shooting pool, and watching the Dallas Cowboys. Most of all, Johnnie was an avid Pittsburgh Steelers fan.

He was fun, loving and dearly loved his grandchildren who affectionately called him "Pop-Pop" and "Grand-dad".

Sorrowfully Submitted,

The Family
