

Until We Meet Again

*We think about you always,
We talk about you still,
You have never been forgotten,
And you never will.*

*We hold you close within our hearts
And there you will remain,
To walk and guide us through our lives,
Until we meet again.*

Acknowledgements

The family of the late Mamie L. Mitchell wishes to express our sincere appreciation to our many friends, family, and neighbors for your acts of kindness and sympathy shown to us during the sudden death of our loved one. We have sustained a great loss and though difficult to bear, we want you to know that we are eternally grateful for your warm consideration and love.

Remembering Her Legacy

At the name of Jesus every knee should bow, of those in heaven, and of those on earth, and of those under the earth, and that every tongue should confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father.

Philippians 2:10-11 NKJV

MAMIE LOU OLLIE MITCHELL was born August 13, 1935 in Athens, Georgia to the late Willie Neal and Harriett Johnson Ollie. In addition to her parents, she was preceded in death by her brother, Frank Ollie and a cousin reared in the home, Charlie Johnson.

MAMIE joined Billups Grove Baptist Church at an early age, where she was a faithful member attending Sunday School and Bible Study regularly. For many years Mamie was a Child Care Provider at Peter Pan Daycare. After retirement, her parent's health began to decline and along with her siblings, she became her parents' in-home caregiver. Mamie was well known for her culinary skills, such as her Sunday dinners and assortment of desserts.

SHE was a caregiver to all that graced her presence, especially of her daughter and son their entire life. Her commitment level and sacrifice to her children and other family members was "second to none".

SHE leaves to cherish her memory loving children, Daron "Lynn" Mitchell and Keith Mitchell both of Athens, GA; siblings, Charlie (Louise) Ollie, Florrie Payne, Rita Goolsby, Jeppie "Jack" (Joann) Ollie, Corina Ollie, Nevel (Mary) Ollie; a cousin reared in the home, Roy Lee (Stella) Winfrey; a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.
