Acknowledgements

The family of the late Elliott Palmer would like to thank you for your heartfelt sympathy in their time of bereavement. Thank you for the many prayers, loving thoughts, and kind words. Special thanks are extended to Mary Hill, Shameka Wiggs, Darrell Maxwell, and Susan Benn for the care of Elliott Palmer. May God Bless you and keep each and everyone of you.

A Silent Tear

Just close your eyes and you will see
All the memories that you have of me.
Just sit and relax and you will find
I'm really there inside your mind

Don't cry for me now I'm gone
For I am in the land of song
There is no pain, there is no fear
So dry away that silent tear

Don't think of me in the dark and cold
For here I am, no longer old
I'm in that place that's filled with love
Known to you all as "up above."

Obituary

Mr. Elliott Palmer was born October 14, 1936 in Blythewood, SC to the late Elliott and Allie Mae Palmer. He was called to be with the Lord on Monday, July 25, 2022 at his residence.

He was educated in the South Carolina Public School System and was a member of Bethel Baptist Church. In 1950, he left South Carolina and moved to Newark, NJ for a better life.

Upon arriving in New Jersey, he met the love of his life, Ms. Alice Williams, whom he married and together they reared five children. Elliott worked several jobs before obtaining his dream job as a business owner. In the summer of 1969, he started his own business from his home, Palmer Paving Company.

Mr. Palmer enjoyed life to the fullest and he also enjoyed family members and friends. He was the owner of a softball team, the Paradise Pathers, and several businesses. Elliott also enjoyed listening to blues, playing pool, traveling, antique cars and fast cars.

Mr. Palmer leaves to cherish his memories daughters, Rosetta Williams of Newark, NJ, Renee Palmer of Blythewood, SC, and Janet Palmer Carri of California; four grandchildren, nine great-grandchildren and four great-great-grandchildren; one sister, Lizzie Kelling; three brothers, Thomas Lee Palmer, Bobby (Henrietta) Palmer and Raymond (Lynda) Palmer; goddaughter, Latria Smith; special friend, Laverne Smith; best friend, Lamont Gibbons; and a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.

In addition to his parents, Mr. Palmer was preceded in death by his ex-wife, Alice Palmer and two children, Lacone Sharif Palmer and Brenda Palmer.
