Acknowledgements

We, the family of the late Maggie Lee Pearson, would like to thank each of you for your outpouring of love and acts of kindness extended to us in our time of bereavement. We pray a special blessing for each of you.

Sweet

This is sweet,
This memory of you,
Swimming in my heart,
Filling my mind.
Your name, your smile, the laughter in your eyes,
Before the song escape your lips.
So sweet were your words,
Not a bitter one I can remember.
Those hugs you offered were so sweet.
I'll miss your sassiness,
As I unknowingly repeat it.
I'll remember you often,
Even when life gets bitter.
The sweet woman you were,
Is who I aim to be.
Raising my parents and siblings had to be hard
Yet you accomplished that with grace.
In my times of need,
As salty tears stained my cheek,
Your sweet words of kindness,
Made my problems seem so bleak.
No one went hungry with you,
Be it their belly or their spirit.
And if they were tired of life,
You'd let them rest their feet.
When it comes to being an angel,
There is none who can compete.
Thank you and I love you
For being so sweet.

Obituary

Mrs. Maggie Lee Pearson, daughter of the late Robert and Maggie Turner Anderson was born in Fairfield County on December 30, 1952. She departed this life on the afternoon of Tuesday, August 23, 2022 at Prisma Health Richland Hospital in Columbia, SC.

Her Christian foundation began as a young child at Saint Luke Baptist Church. She later transitioned to the New Jerusalem Church, where she was an active member who truly loved the Lord and enjoyed receiving his word.

Maggie attended the Public Schools of Fairfield County and was a graduate of Winnsboro High School. She was a certified nursing assistant for over 30 years, and also a dedicated homemaker to her loving family. Maggie enjoyed spending time with her family, cooking big meals, going to church, and most of all shopping.

She leaves to mourn precious memories her children, George W. Pearson Jr., Marshall (Willie, Jr.) Murphy, Latoria Pearson-Durham, Felicia (Bernard) Pearson-Nesmith and Shamika Pearson; twelve grandchildren, Ieshia, Shaquana, Willie, III, Marcus, Tyreese, Briyonna, John, III, Jequevon, Deionte, Gabriella, Brent, and Destinee; two siblings, Salley Jackson and Freddie (Gloria) Anderson; and a host of other nieces, nephews, cousins, and loving friends.
