Acknowledgements

We, the family of Sallie D. Canzater wish to thank each of you for the many loving and wonderful acts of kindness rendered during the passing of our loved one. Your warmth and expressions of compassion are greatly appreciated.

Sometimes in life you realize things happen to make you a stronger person. God gives the toughest problems to the strongest people. You may not understand why things happen but everthing happens for a reason. We are gathered here today to celebrate my grandma Sallie. Everybody that knew my grandma knows that she was a loving special woman. She was very caring, loving, understanding and an outstanding person. My grandma loved everybody and my grandma treated everyone like they were hers. She was a mother to everyone. I am full of different emotions. I'm hurt, I'm sad, but most of all I'm thankful that my sweet lady is in no more pain. You will forever be missed and never forgotten. Until we meet again. Rest in Paradise, Grandma.

Obituary

Maybe I'm selfish, but I wasn't ready for you to go
But I have come to terms that your leaving was out of my control
My young lady, I'm going to miss you to the point that it will never be the same
Eyes fill up like pools and my heart rate increases every time I hear your name
You always told me never look like what you are going through
And be beautiful, be strong, and above all, stay true to you
Grandma, you are my mother, my queen, and my friend
My wonderful experiences in life with you, I hate they had to end
I close my eyes and visualize your beautiful face and smile
Then I realize it's only a vision that last for just a while
Grandma, I know I have to let you go in the flesh
Because your being at peace is what is best
So, go my beautiful grandmother go fly high
And I will be waiting patiently to see you again.

My Beautiful Butterfly.
