

Order of Service

Pastor Ricky Gibson, Officiating

Musical Prelude-----Mr. Shedric Richmond

Processional----- Clergy, Family and Friends

Scripture

Old Testament-----Pastor Ricky Gibson

New Testament----- Minister Richard Williams

Prayer of Comfort----- Bishop Roosevelt Ashford

Solo----- Pastor Connie Richmond

Obituary----- First Lady Lisa Smith

Reflections (2 Minutes)-----Pastor Sylvia Staten

Minister Sippie Young, III

Shane Pearson

Mason Garrett

Latreatha Carmichael

Musical Tribute----- Ms. Tiffany Smith

Eulogy----- Bishop James Smith, Jr., Pastor

Church of God of Prophecy

Presentation----- Nelson's Funeral Home

Recessional----- Congregation

"I Love to Praise Him"

Interment

Monday, August 3, 2015
Ft. Jackson National Cemetery
4170 Percival Road
Columbia, SC 29229

Floral Bearers

Nieces

Pall Bearers

Calvin McMiller

James Miller

Isaiah Cooper

Larry Miller

Leroy Talbert

Ernest Chambers

Honorary Pall Bearers

Shane Pearson

Markell Miller

Kelbe Miller

Chance Pearson

Walter Davis

Kenneth Miller, Jr.

Acknowledgements

Our family wishes to thank you for your prayers and support during our time of need. It has been greatly appreciated and we are grateful to have such wonderful and loving friends.

—The Miller Family

Nelson's Funeral Home
270 N. Dogwood Avenue
Ridgeway, SC 29130
803-337-4500
www.nelsonsofridgeway.com

A Celebration of Life

Mr. George W. Miller, Sr.

July 13, 1933 – July 25, 2015

Saturday, August 1, 2015, 2:00 P.M.
Weeping Mary Baptist Church
US Highway 321 N
Winnsboro, SC 29180
Reverend J. C. Edwards, Pastor

Missing You Always

You never said I'm leaving
You never said goodbye
You were gone before we knew it
And only God knows why.

A million times I needed you
A million times I cried
If love alone could have saved you
You never would have died.

In life I loved you dearly
In death I love you still
In my heart I hold a place
That only you can fill.

Love your granddaughter
Latoya M. Williams

It was not long ago that you left my life.
You flew away to heaven to be with Ricky but it doesn't feel right.

It all seems like a bad dream, one I cannot escape.
It feels like I'm trapped in a real dark place.
I used to walk in the door and see you sitting in the chair,
But when I walk in now I don't see you over there.
You'll always be in my heart I can feel your spirit in the air,
Early mornings late nights no one knows the bond we share.

You lived a good life,
Always spoke to God and Jesus but sometimes I ask why
Granddaddy had to leave us.

So much pain inside no one will ever understand
But you lived a good life the definition of a righteous man.

E. TyShane Pearson

Obituary

In the early hours of Saturday July 25, 2015, heaven became an even more beautiful place because God called our Daddy home to be with Him.

On July 13, 1933, Lyles Givens and Addie Smith were blessed with a handsome baby boy...our Daddy, George Woodrow Miller. He was the youngest of 16 children, all of whom preceded him in death.

Our Daddy grew up in York County, South Carolina where his brothers and sisters all doted on him. He attended York County Public Schools during the late 30s and early 40s. His most important lesson was taught from his older brothers and sisters and that lesson was the importance of being a hard-worker..."By the time I was 16, I could work any man's job", a quote he passed down to his own grandchildren.

At the age of 18, Daddy came down to Fairfield County to help construct what is now Highway 321 and it was then that he met and fell in love with our mother, his "Jane"-Elise Chambers. They were married in 1954 and that union was blessed with six beautiful children.

Our Daddy went on to serve his country in the United States Army. During his time in the military, he fought for his country in the Korean War. He received an Honorable Discharge and returned to the United States in 1956. Once he returned home, he continued to work hard to provide for his growing family. He had several jobs including working at Fairfield Memorial Hospital, Winnsboro Veneer Plant, Daniel Construction, Chrysler Airtemp, Standard Products, and finally Louis Rich, where he retired after working there for 18 years.

Our Daddy loved God and in 1958 he met his dear friend, Foyce Mackey, who introduced him to Christ. He became a Christian and together, as a family, we joined The Church of God of Prophecy. As a member, he served as an usher and a deacon for many years. He was a true man of God. His love for Christ and commitment to the church is a major part of the legacy he left for his family.

In addition to family and church, our Daddy loved his community. He was always one of the first voters at the poll during election season. As he grew older, he was often spotted over-looking local construction or as we call it "being noseey!" He faithfully made his weekly trip to the Dollar General and Bo's Barbershop for a haircut. He also did his part to help the environment by going "green" long before it was popular- he made us wash and re-use all paper plates and aluminum foil!

After his retirement, he owned and operated Miller's Daycare where he was known by all of his babies as "Pa-Pa". All in all we had a good Daddy that truly loved God, his family, his friends, and his community.

Obituary (cont'd)

He leaves to cherish his memories, a wife of 60 years, Elise Chambers Miller, his children, George (Loretha) Miller, Joyce (Peppermint) Miller, Gregory (Leshia) Miller, Kenneth (Patchell) Miller, and Tonya (James) Goodwin all of Winnsboro SC; twenty-three grandchildren; twenty-five great-grandchildren; two sisters-in-law, Mamie (Earl) Bonner and Mary Starks of Winnsboro SC; four aunts-in-law, Margaret Mickens of Baltimore, MD, Claudia Nelson of Norfolk, VA, Emma Cooper and Annie Mae Chambers, both of Winnsboro, SC; and a host of nieces and nephews that will miss him forever.

He was preceded in death by his beloved son, Ricky Miller and his dear mother-in-law, Catherine Brooks. Those of us that are left behind will treasure his memories always and those that have greeted him in heaven will rejoice with him