The Broken Chain

We little knew that morning,
God was going to call your name.

In life we loved you dearly,
In death, we do the same.

It broke our hearts to lose you.
You did not go alone.

For part of us went with you,
The day God called you home.

You left us beautiful memories,
Your love is still our guide.
And although we cannot see you,
You are always at our side.

Our family chain is broken,
And nothing seems the same,
But as God calls us one by one,
The chain will link again.

Obituary

“Peace I leave with you, my peace I give unto you: not as the world giveth, give I unto you. Let not your heart be troubled, neither let it be afraid.” John 14:27

On Thursday, August 4, 2016, God gave his angel, Amanda Yvonne Price Canty, known to family and friends as “Von” her angel wings. “Von” was born in Winnsboro, South Carolina on August 31, 1956 to the late Amos and Delois Squirewell Price.

She graduated from Winnsboro High School in the Class of 1974. She went on to further her education at Professional Training Institute earning a Medical Assistant Degree. She also received her cosmetology license from Kenneth Shuler School of Cosmetology, where she later became the director. “Von” worked various jobs prior to becoming part owner and proprietor of Amanda’s Hair Studio in Winnsboro, South Carolina and of LA’s Beauty and Barbering School in Columbia, South Carolina.

Approximately 35 years ago, “Von” married her high school sweetheart, Leroy Canty and to this beautiful union, they became the proud parents of three children: Rosetta, Winter, William Leroy and one goddaughter, Adrianna Sox.

At an early age, “Von” accepted Christ as her Lord and Savior. She was gifted with many talents including caring for people, sewing, and decorating. Her love for children was her passion. She loved planning and organizing family functions. As recent as February of this year, “Von” and Leroy hosted at their home, their Great Aunt Alice’s 100th Birthday celebration who passed away last month.

Obituary (cont’d)
