Obituary

“He Only Takes the Best”

He saw that you were getting tired
And the cure was not to be,
So He put His arms around you,
And whispered, “Come and follow me.”
With tearful eyes we watched you
And saw you slip away.
Although we loved you dearly
We could not make you stay.
A golden heart stopped beating.
Hard working hands now at rest
God broke our hearts to prove to us,
He only takes the best.

~In Loving Remembrance~
The Woods Family

Franklin Delano Woods, Jr., “Frank,” was born March 2, 1956 in Ridgeway, South Carolina. He was the son of Rosia L. Woods and the late Franklin D. Woods, Sr. Frank was called home to be with the Lord on Friday, September 30, 2016.

Frank attended Fairfield County schools. He was a client of Fairfield County Disabilities & Special Needs and he participated in their jobs program and attended other programs at the center. Frank has met many people over the years and was well loved.

Frank loved his hats, the beach, Christmas Holidays and Camp Joy. He also enjoyed working, cooking, caring for others and meeting new people.

He leaves to cherish memories, his mother, Rosia L. Woods; three sisters, Martha (Robert) Alexander of Columbia, SC; Beatrice (Thomas) Barber of North Augusta, SC; and Mary (Roger) Williams of Ridgeway, SC; four brothers, Eddie (Bobbie) Woods of Columbia, SC, George Woods and Albert Woods of Ridgeway, SC and Gregory (Felecia) Woods of Kingston, NY; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, aunts, uncles and other loving devoted relatives and friends.

Frank was preceded in death by his father, Franklin D. Woods, Sr. and exactly one year ago today, October 4, 2015, his brother, McArthur Woods.
