He Only Takes the Best
God saw that you were getting tired
And a cure was not meant to be
So He put his loving arms around you
And whispered, "Come to Me"
With tearful eyes, we watched you
And saw you pass away
And although we love you dearly
We could not make you stay
A golden heart stopped beating
Hard working hands at rest
God broke our hearts to prove to us
He only takes the best!
We Love You

Acknowledgements

Perhaps you sent a lovely card or sat quietly in a chair. Perhaps you sent a floral piece, if so, we saw it there. Perhaps you spoke the kindest words that any friend could say. Perhaps you were not there at all, just thought of us that day. Whatever you did to console our hearts,
We Thank You!

The family would like to extend Special Thanks to Reverend Randolph and Cynthia Glover, Recya Robertson and Bernice Cohens.

The Life of Mrs. Alfreida Kennedy Johnson

"And I said, Oh that I had wings like a dove! For I would fly away and be at rest." Psalms 55:6

Alfreida Kennedy Johnson was born October 22, 1950 to the late Marvin and John Etta (Lumpkin) Kennedy. On Monday morning, August 7, 2017, Alfreida departed this life and entered into eternal peace at Agape Hospice House in Columbia, South Carolina.

Alfreida attended Fairfield County Public Schools and Piedmont Technical College. She loved life and was a very caring person who loved to talk, sing, and cook. She worshipped faithfully at Shiloh Independent Church in various capacities such as being a devoted choir member and overseer of food services until her health declined. She was well known for her infectious smile! She was also a member of Woman's Home Aid Lodge 119.

Cherishing her loving memory are her husband of 17 years, Luther Johnson; two sons, Randel Curry of Winnsboro, South Carolina and Earnest (Stacy) Preston James, Jr. of Connecticut; four grandchildren, Shanya Pearson, Preston James, William Curry, and Taylor Curry; one brother, Curtis (Madinah) Mahammad of Greenville, South Carolina; two sisters-in-law, Elaine E. Kennedy and Carolyn Crumpton, both of Winnsboro, South Carolina; and a host of nieces, nephews, aunts, uncles, cousins, relatives and friends.

In addition to her loving parents, she was preceded in death by four brothers; Jewell Kennedy, Carnell Kennedy, Donnell Kennedy, and Michael Kennedy; one sister; Karen Crim; and a host of aunts and uncles.
