We, the family of Mrs. Kim Bowen Cade wish to express our heartfelt and sincere appreciation for the prayers, cards and encouraging words during our time of bereavement. May God richly bless all of you.

A Letter From Heaven

When tomorrow starts without me and I'm not there to see;
If the sun should rise and find your eyes all filled with tears for me.
I wish so much you wouldn't cry the way you did today;
While thinking of the many things we didn't get to say.
I know how much you love me as much as I love you;
And each time that you think of me, I know you'll miss me too.
When tomorrow starts without me, don't think we're far apart.
For every time you think of me, I'm right here in your heart.

Obituary

“And God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes; and there shall be no more death, neither sorrow, nor crying, neither shall there be any more pain: for the former things are passed away.” Revelations 21:4

Kim Bowen Cade was born in Nashville, TN on January 14, 1961. Kim was the daughter of Henry Bowen and the late Ronnie Smith Bowen. On January 26, 2018, God called her home to eternal rest.

Kim was educated in the public schools of Richland County, SC. She graduated from C.A. Johnson High School and attended Midlands Technical College in Columbia, SC. She married Walker Cade on March 9, 1980.

Kim was a people person and loved working with all people. She worked for many years in the public schools in nutritional services as a lunch aide. Later, she worked at Kentucky Fried Chicken as a cashier.

She leaves behind to cherish her memories, her father Henry Bowen of Memphis, TN; one sister, Lois Garner of Memphis, TN; six children, Kelvin Cade of Winnsboro, SC, Troy Cade of Santee, SC, Alisha Cade Johnson of Newberry, SC, Richard Cade of Winnsboro, SC and Tiesha and Keisha Ray of Columbia, SC. She will be remembered in love by a host of grandchildren, nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

She was preceded in eternal rest by her son, Darryl Cade and brother, Kenneth Bowen.
