Life Reflections

Miss Me but Let Me Go - Anonymous

When I come to the end of the road
And the sun has set for me
I want no rites in a gloom-filled room
Why cry for a soul set free?
Miss me a little-but not too long
And not with your head bowed low
Remember the love that we once shared
Miss me-but let me go
For this is a journey that we all must take
And each must go alone.
It's all part of the Master's plan
A step on the road to home
When you are lonely and sick of heart
Go to the friends we know
And bury your sorrows in doing good deeds
Miss me but let me go.

"Miss me a little - but not too long and not with your head bowed low. Remember the love that we once shared, miss me but let me go."

Rhonda Deanese Murphy, the beloved daughter of the late Thomas and Margaree Murphy, was born on January 28, 1963 in Ridgeway, South Carolina. Rhonda departed this early life in the early morning of July 30, 2018 at Providence Heart Hospital in Columbia, South Carolina. Rhonda was educated in the Fairfield County School Systems during her earlier years and later graduated from Eau Claire High School in Columbia, South Carolina.

Rhonda was one of the friendliest people that you could ever meet; she never met a stranger and was always willing to lend a helping hand. Rhonda was a member of Shiloh First Independent Church in Winnsboro, SC and co-owner of Winnsboro House of Barbeque.

Rhonda leaves behind to cherish her memories: a loving and caring fiancé, Ernest Zanders; three children,: Curtis (Temecko) Murphy of Columbia, SC, Melody Lawhorne of Winnsboro, SC, and Ashley (Dre) Kelly of Columbia, SC; five grandchildren: Ashanti and Kenneth McGoogan, Mykiah Murphy, Ashton Kelly and Ladrel Sampson, Jr.; four brothers, Thomas Murphy of Texas, Stanley (Brenda) Murphy of Columbia, SC, Gerald (Joyce) Murphy of Columbia, SC and John Murphy of Columbia, SC; a special aunt, Catherine Weldon of Ridgeway, SC; two bonus-sisters, Tina Middleton of Columbia, SC and Tangee Brice Jacobs of Blair, SC; and a host of nieces, nephews and other relatives and friends who will miss her dearly.

Rhonda was preceded in death by one brother, Carnell Murphy.
