If Tomorrow Starts Without Me

When tomorrow starts without me and I am not there to see,

If the sun should rise and find your eyes are filled with tears for me,

I wish so much you wouldn't cry, the way you did today,
While thinking of the many things we didn't get to say.

I know how much you loved me, as much as I loved you and, each time you think of me, I know you'll miss me too.

But, when tomorrow starts without me, please try to understand,

That an angel came and called my name, and took me by the hand.

He said my place is ready in heaven far above, and that I have to leave behind all those I dearly love.

When I looked through heaven's gates, I knew I wasn't Alone, God said "Well Done My Child, I felt so much at home,
He said, "This is Eternity and all I've promised you." Today your life
On earth is past, but here life starts anew.

Obituary

"To everything there is a season and a time to every purpose under the heaven: A time to be born, and a time die; a time to plant, and a time to pluck up that which is planted." Ecclesiastes 3:1-2

On Friday afternoon, August 10, 2018 at Palmetto Health Richland in Columbia, SC, God saw fit to dispatch his angels during the peaceful transition as Deacon Jimmie Moore as he entered into a restful sleep. During this transition, he was greeted by his five brothers the late John Henry Moore, Johnnie Lee Moore, Earl Moore Jr., Samuel Moore, Douglas Moore, and one sister, Eva Mae Chisholm. We can just imagine the smiles on their faces as they shouted, "Welcome Home!"

Deacon Jimmie Moore was born on August 23, 1940 to Leila Moore and Mr.
Sidney Squirewell in Ridgeway, SC. He was united in a loving marriage to Margaret V. Moore. We remember him as a hard-working man that loved his family and he was a faithful member of Mt. Pisgah Baptist Church where he served on the Deacon Board. He enjoyed playing golf, watching sports and Nascar Racing. He also loved fishing, cutting grass and keeping his yard looking great.

Deacon Jimmie Moore attended the Fairfield County Public Schools. His career started at the Department of Highways and Public Transportation where he worked for 33 years. For the last 14 years of his career, he worked at the Winnsboro Waste Water Plant. He retired after his health began to decline.

Deacon Jimmie Moore joined the Purity Lodge #42. He worked his way to the top and was elected Worshipful Master for Purity Lodge #42. In 1973, he joined C.C. Johnson Consistory #136, 32° and 33° Masons. He also joined Cario Temple #125 Prince Hall Shriners. He was one of the first members from Fairfield County to join these organizations.

Deacon Jimmie Moore leaves to cherish his memories, his devoted and caring wife, Margaret V. Moore; seven children, Deacon Larry (Dorothy) Moore of Elgin, SC, Brenda (Robby) Robinson of Lugoff, SC, Soninka Brice of Lexington, SC, Barbara Harrison and Steven Goodman both of Ridgeway, SC, Donna (Jamaar) Anderson of Columbia, SC; eleven grandchildren, ten great-grandchildren; his parents, Leila Moore and Mr. Sidney Squirewell; one special godson, Stephon (Phylcia) Willingham Jr; sisters; Margarie (Thomas) Edmunds of Ridgeway, SC, Yvette (Eddie) Chisholm of Ridgeway SC, Emma (James) Bealy, Francina Jackson, Sharon (Oliver) Boulware all of Ridgeway SC, Brothers; Damon Moore (Betty) of Blythewood SC, Morris (Mary) Moore of Ridgeway SC, Nathaniel (Collena) of Baltimore MD, Dexter (Marcella)

Ridgeway SC; four sisters-in-law, Margaret A Moore and Ruth Moore of Ridgeway, Sarah Harrison of Columbia, SC, and Betty Durham of Moultrie, GA; two brothers-in-law, Bobby (Ellen) Ruff of Atlanta, GA and Stanley Gadsden of Memphis, TN; and a host of nieces, nephews and other loving relatives and friends.

For My Grandpa – by Ilona Blake

I know we are all feeling a little bit sad
That we've lost our Grandpa, our friend, and our dad.
Together we have cried an ocean of tears
As we feel so empty and hold many fears.

But Grandpa would want us to know he's in a good place
And that he's watching us all with a smile on his face,
As we have made him so proud, as proud as can be
That he has raised such a beautiful and special family.

Thinking back now, I really must say I feel lucky and privileged to have known Grandpa to this day.
For in my life, you have played a special part.
The memories I will treasure and keep close to my heart.

For me, I am glad my little baby he got to meet.
And for all of us, be grateful, his life is now complete.
To each one of us he has loved and cared.
As a family, be thankful for the good times we shared.

Although he has gone, we will always be together,
And his spirit will live on in each one of us forever.
When you look to the sky, look for the brightest star,
As that will be Grandpa looking down on us from afar.

And now I would like to thank the good Lord above
For blessing us with our Grandpa, with his kindness and love.
Dear God, if it is not too much fuss, Take extra special care of our Grandpa, for he is very dear to us.

Grandpa, if you are listening, say a prayer for us every day.
Be sure to protect us and guide us on our way.
We know when God called you, you had to go,
But we want you to know, Grandpa, we miss you and love you so.

We Love You Granddad
From the Grandchildren
