Acknowledgements

The family of Ms. Lueburn C. Lawhorn would like to convey sincere gratitude and appreciation to family and friends. The support and expressions of love and kindness you have shown us are immensely appreciated. May God continue to greatly bless you.

You can only have one mother

You can only have one mother, patient kind and true;
No other friend in all the world, will be the same to you.
When other friends forsake you, to mother you will return,
For all her loving kindness, she asks nothing in return.
As we look upon her picture, sweet memories we recall,
Of a face so full of sunshine, and a smile for one and all.
Sweet Jesus, take this message, to our dear mother up above;
Tell her how we miss her, and give her all our love.

From Son, Mark

God Saw You Getting Tired

God saw you getting tired and a cure was not to be so he put his arms around you and whispered, "Come to Me"
With tearful eyes we watched you, and saw you pass away and although we love you dearly we could not make you stay.
A golden heart stopped beating hard working hands at rest.
God broke our hearts to prove to us He only takes the best.

From Grandson, Mark Jr.

To Our Sister...

We were blessed to call you sister, we also called a you friend;
You loved us unconditionally, and stood through thick and thin.
You've shared our joys and sorrows, our laughter and tears.
You've been an inspiration, as we grew up through the years..
There's something God has given us, that's more than family;
He's placed a love for you, our Sister, deep down in the heart of us.

Obituary

Ms. Lueburn Cooke Lawhorn was born on March 5, 1948, in Blaney, South Carolina. She was the oldest daughter of Cole Cooke and Bernice McCants. She departed this earthly life quietly on Monday, November 12, 2018 at Providence Hospital in Columbia, SC.

Lueburn attended the public schools of Kershaw County. After graduating from high school, she worked at Craft Farrow Hospital. She was also with Diamant Boart and Risdon Qmist. She retired from the City of Columbia after 15 years. Lueburn was a member of Shady Grove A.M.E. Church where she served as president of Usher Board for many years and she served faithfully as the president of the Women Missionary Society and she was the church clerk for many years until her health failed.

Those left to cherish her fond memories are a loving son, Mark A. Lawhorn and a devoted daughter-in-law, Shonese Lawhorn; one grandchild, Mark Lawhorn, Jr.; one brother, Donald Cooke of Harlem, New York; four sisters, Patricia (Irreydell) White of Columbia, SC; Barbara Miles and Inda Huggins of Elgin, SC; Cynthia Cooke of Columbia, SC; four brothers-in-law; seven sisters-in-law; host of nieces and nephews and other loving relatives and friends who will surely miss her.

In addition to her parents, she was preceded in death by her paternal grandparents, Rev. Columbus and Lula Cooke; maternal grandparents, Arthur and Lottie McCants; five brothers, George Samuel, Calvin Cooke, Colie Cooke, William Cooke, and Wayne Cooke; one sister, Shirley Cooke.

Not my mother-in-law, but my Ma.

Your kindness has inspired me in more ways than one.
The time we shared meant so much to me and I had a lot of fun.

You taught me the true meaning of a mother's love.
You reminded me when I was in doubt to look up above.

I could count on you at all times.

Your strength was amazing through this hard time.
Thank you for sharing your son. You raised the man I love and I want to say Thank You.

You're more than a mother-in-law, you were my Ma.

Love, Shon
