Obituary

Mr. James Otis Young was born on May 29, 1936 to the late Mr. Richard and Mrs. Mary Brown Young. He departed this life on December 14, 2018 at Ridgeway Manor.

James Otis attended Fairfield County Schools. He enjoyed raising hogs which was his passion and working in the yard. He also loved listening to quartet music. His favorite group was Robert Blair and the Fantastic Violinaires.

James Otis was well-known in the community. Everywhere he went he would spark up a conversation that would end in laughter. He loved talking about his old pulpwood days and watching old westerns on television, especially Bonanza.

James Otis worked for many years. He drove trucks for Biggers Brothers Trucking Company in Charlotte, NC, but his lifelong work was hauling pulpwood and logging. He worked until his health declined.

James Otis leaves to cherish his memories: his children, James (Brenda) Young of Ridgeway, SC, Teresa (Melvin) Dreher of Winnsboro, SC, Calvin (Bridgette) Young, and LeKeisha Peay of Winnsboro, SC; two brothers, Thomas Young of Winnsboro, SC and Johnny Young of Elgin, SC; four sisters, Ida Mae Barber of Ridgeway, SC, Hattie Milling of San Antonio, TX, Ella Alexander of Uniondale, NY, and Loretta Love of Charlotte, NC. He also leaves fifteen grandchildren, eight great-grandchildren, and one great-great-grandchild, along with other relatives and friends all of whom will miss him dearly.

One week prior to his passing, he was preceded in death by his loving wife of 59, Moretha Young. He was also preceded in death by his parents, four brothers, and one great-grandson, Aiden Jace Foster.
