Acknowledgements

The family of the late Mable Belton Baker wishes to express sincere thanks and heartfelt appreciation for the encouraging words, acts of kindness, and support during this time of their bereavement. May God Bless You.

The Serenity Prayer

God grant me the SERENITY to accept the things I cannot change; The COURAGE to change the things that I can; and WISDOM to know the difference. But God, GRANT me the courage not to give up on what I think is right even though I think it is hopeless.

Reflections of Life

“And God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes; and there shall be no more death, neither sorrow, nor crying, neither shall there be any more pain: for the former things are passed away.” Revelation 21:4.

Mrs. Mable Belton Baker, daughter of the late Arve Belton and Louvenia Belton Tate was born on August 4, 1949 in Fairfield County, South Carolina. On December 27, 2018, God saw fit to call his angel home to walk through the pearly gates.

Mable received her education in the Public Schools of Fairfield County where she graduated from Winnsboro High School in 1969. She then moved on to work at various jobs before retiring from the South Carolina Department of Mental Health in 2010.

Though we have lost a precious soul, there are plenty of memories left to be cherished by her son, Micheal Belton, Sr. and daughter-in-law, Misty Rose Belton of Columbia, SC; daughter, Samantha Baker of Blythewood, SC; her grandchildren, Michael Belton, Jr, Crivon Belton, Shelby Belton, Sasha Finley, Aliyah Atkins, Jada Hall, Cadence Hall, Samiya Belton all of Columbia, SC, Marquel Brown of Orangeburg, SC and Nicholas Belton of Blythewood, SC; her great-grandchildren, Michaela Belton, KeMiya Belton, Riley Schoclet of Columbia, SC, Ka'Zyiah Coulter and Harmony Brown of Orangeburg, SC. She will also be missed by her sisters, Betty Portee, Mary Ann Belton, Lois Belton and sister-in-law Willie Mae Belton along with nieces, nephews and very dear close friends.

In addition to her parents, Mable was preceded in death by her brothers, James Robert Belton and Reverend Dr. Johnny Belton.
