Obituary

In loving Memory of a Dear Sister

My dearest darling Sister
 How can I find the words to say?
 To tell of how I miss you
 Throughout every single day.
 I miss our little chats
 The way you'd listen to me moan
 And how you'd always cheer me up
 Whenever you would phone.
 Living life without you
 It so hard to bear
 And I'd give all I have to awaken
 And to see you standing there.

Our Big Mama

Today we lost our Big Mama. A woman who brought fun to all of our lives with respect, teaching and love. She taught us so much with a simple smile and with discipline. Big Mama wanted us to be the best we could be with a hug and a kiss.

Don't be sorry for us, we were fortunate to have you here for 92 years. We are sorry that for those who never met and didn't have the opportunity to share her wonderful smile and love. It's not saying goodbye to you Big Mama because now you can see us where ever we go. We love you and thanks for all the lessons. We are still prepared to learn more from you.

Your Children

Mrs. Rosa Lee Peay, affectionately known as "Big Momma" entered this earthly life on March 1, 1926 and entered into eternal rest on Wednesday, January 2, 2019 at her residence.

Mrs. Peay was the daughter of the late Henry Simpson and Lillie B. Lee of Ridgeway, SC. Rosa was united in holy matrimony to the late Heyward Peay and they had a long loving marriage until his death.

Mrs. Peay was educated in the Public Schools of Fairfield County and she was employed by the Candy Kitchen in Winnsboro, SC. She and Heyward opened Heyward's Grocery Store and "Big Momma" worked for many years babysitting in the community. She retired from childcare and became a foster grandparent at Midlands Center in Columbia, SC where she worked until her health declined. "Big Momma" believed in working hard to support her family.

She became a member of Bible Light Holiness Church in Ridgeway, SC where she continued to worship until her health declined. She was baptized in the name of Jesus Christ and she accepted Jesus as her personal Lord and Savior. She was active in the church as the Sunday School Treasurer, nursery worker and as usher. She loved to praise the Lord and she loved attending church.

Her hobbies were baking cakes and planting flowers. "Big Momma" was a gentle and caring person that loved cooking and feeding others.

Mrs. Peay leaves to cherish her memories one sister, Lauree Simpson of Baltimore, MD; one daughter, Louise Robertson of Ridgeway, SC, two foster daughters, Carrie Chatman of Ridgeway, SC and Carol Ann English of Winnsboro, SC; a special nephew, Albert Belton of Ridgeway, SC; a special niece, Nadine Boyd of Winnsboro, SC; and a host of other loving relatives and friends who will miss her dearly.

She was preceded in death by one sister, Pauline Kelly and one nephew, James Lee Jones.
