Acknowledgements

We, the family, would like to thank all whom have expressed both their condolences and sympathies. We appreciate every phone call, every card, and the countless thoughts, prayers and words of comfort received during this difficult time.

The Broken Chain

We little knew that day, God was going to call your name.

In life we loved you dearly, in death we do the same.

It broke our hearts to lose you. You did not go alone.

For part of us went with you, the day God called you home.

You left us beautiful memories; your love is still our guide.

And although we cannot see you, you are always at our side.

Our family chain is broken, and nothing seems the same.

But as God calls us one by one; the chain will link again.

Obituary

Sgt. Michelle Roshon Wallace, 48, passed away June 4, 2019 in Columbia, South Carolina at the WJ Bryan Dorn VA Medical Center. She was born June 5, 1970 in Winnsboro, South Carolina to Jess and Maggie Walker.

Michelle graduated from Fairfield Central High School in 1988. Following graduation, she served with the U.S. Army, traveling the world and saving lives as a Medical Specialist on active and reserve duty. Upon returning home, she started her nursing education at Midlands Technical College in Columbia, South Carolina and continued her education at American Sentinel University in Denver, Colorado. She worked as a nurse at the WJ Bryan Dorn VA Medical Center in Columbia, South Carolina where she served for many years before moving to Augusta, Georgia to work at the Charlie Norwood VA Medical Center.

Michelle loved a good time with family and friends. She was characterized by her bright smile, big laughs, and her squeaky voice. Michelle was always available to help someone in need and was a dependable mother, daughter, sister, and friend. She truly cherished loyalty. Most importantly, she loved the Lord with all of her heart, mind, and soul and called Antioch Baptist Church in Ridgeway, SC her worship home.

Michelle is survived by her only son, Marquis D. Wallace; her parents Jess and Maggie Walker of Ridgeway, SC; eight sisters, Rosetta Squirewell of Ridgeway, SC, Minnie (Lindsey) Thompson of Annapolis, MD, Marsha Kate of Winnsboro, SC, Sue (Otto) Fair of Washington, DC, Gloria Durham of Ridgeway, SC, Mildred Walker of Ridgeway, SC, Tarsha (Simmon) Gatlin of Atlanta, GA, and Wanda (Lorenzo) Cash of Northport, AL; and a host of family and close friends.
