Obituary

The Key to Our Heart

Our hearts are broken, the key is missing. You were such a great token, our hearts are heavy, our tears are overflowing. She loved how much we all have grown. A voice so soft, but yet so powerful. A kind and giving person that loved so many. A face with a beautiful smile. Oh, how we wish to have you back for a little while. With broken hearts and tearful eyes, we will always hold the key to our heart with love, memories, pictures and dreams. You will forever be missed our beautiful Queen. Take your rest because you were the best.

Mrs. Eloise Squirewell Taylor was born on March 20, 1928 in Ridgeway, South Carolina. She was the beloved daughter of the late Mr. James Preston Squirewell and Mrs. Clara Lee Squirewell. Eloise was united in holy matrimony to the late James Cleveland Taylor on December 17, 1950 in Blaney, South Carolina. She transitioned from her earthly journey to her glorious new home on June 12, 2019.

Eloise loved her family and friends, but most importantly, she loved the Lord and was converted at a young age. She was a faithful member of the St. Mark Baptist Church in Ridgeway, South Carolina. She took pleasure in serving with the Senior Missionary Society where she served for several years. Eloise was a dedicated employee at Charms Manufacturing until retirement. She was well known in the community for her benevolent actions.

Eloise leaves to cherish her precious memories five daughters, Doris Nelson, Alvester Crim, Karen (Curtis) Whitaker and Barbara Durham all of Ridgeway, South Carolina, Urethia (Malcolm) Woods of Irmo, South Carolina and one step-daughter, Wilma Willard of Fredericksburg, VA; two brothers, Sidney (Henrietta) Squirewell and Celess Squirewell both of Ridgeway, South Carolina; twelve grandchildren, nineteen great-grandchildren and three great-great-grandchildren; a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, other relatives and friends, all of whom will miss her dearly.

In addition to her husband and parents, Eloise was preceded in death one daughter, Cassandra Taylor; one son, Otis Cleveland Taylor; and five siblings, Eddie, Louis, Preston, Clara and Mary.
