Acknowledgements

We, the Davis Family, would like to thank you for your many acts of kindness during the loss of our most precious love one! We thank God for the life she lived, the memories we shared, and the time we spent together. She has lived a legacy that will live on in our hearts forever! God bless you all.

The Broken Chain

*We little knew that day,
God was going to call your name.
In life we loved you dearly,
In death we do the same.
It broke our hearts to lose you.
You did not go alone.
For part of us went with you,
The day God called you home.
You left us beautiful memories;
Your love is still our guide.
And although we cannot see you,
You are always at our side.
Our family chain is broken,
And nothing seems the same.
But as God calls us one by one;
The chain will link again.

Obituary

Mrs. Mae Nolia Davis was born November 16, 1928 in Blair, SC to the late Flemming McDuffie and Dora Y. McDuffie. She was the oldest of five siblings. She retired from the Fairfield County School system after being a Teacher's Assistant for over 40 years.

To know her, was to love her. She was not a stranger to anyone. Everyone knew that she was a great cook and her specialty was sweet potato pies.

She was a faithful member of the Shiloh First Presbyterian Church. She served as a Sunday School teacher, Vacation Bible School teacher, Trustee, Deacon and most recently, an Elder. She was a member of the Gospel and Combined Choirs and the Shiloh First Presbyterian Women's Organization. She was also a member of the Eastern Stars Progressive Chapter #253 Winnsboro.

She was married to the love of her life, the late Terry Lee Davis, Sr. for 58 years. From this union, there were seven boys.

Mae Nolia leaves to cherish fond memories, four sons, George (Blanche) Davis, Robert (Bobbie) Davis and Richard Davis, all of Winnsboro, SC and Lawrence Davis of Charlotte, NC; sixteen grandchildren, forty-three great-grandchildren and five great-great-grandchildren; one sister, Edna Pearl Banks of Winnsboro, SC; five sisters-in-law, Roberta Land of Winnsboro, SC, Earline Perry of Hartford, CT, Lillie Mae Nelson of Baltimore, MD, Margie Davis of Washington, DC, Emma Lee McDuffie and Thomesenia Davis both of Winnsboro, SC; a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

In addition to her husband and parents, Mae Nolia was preceded in death by three sons, Terry Lee Davis, Jr., Willie James Davis, and Charles Allen Davis; each of whom served our country in the military, one sister, two brothers, and two grandchildren.
