We, the Dixon and Harris Families, would like to thank you for your many acts of kindness during the loss of our most precious love one! We thank God for the life she lived, the memories we shared, and the time we spent together. She has lived a legacy that will live on in our hearts forever! God bless you all.

We would also like to extend special thanks to the Staff of KershawHealth Hospital, Providence Health Hospital, Dr. Kearse, Dr. Williamson, Hospice Care and the staff of Nelson's Funeral Home.

God Took Her

God Took her to her loving home

God saw her getting tired, a cure was not to be
He wrapped her in his loving arms and whispered
"Come with me."

She suffered much in silence; her spirit did not bend.

She faced her pain with courage until the very end.
She tried so hard to stay with us, but her fight was not in vain
God took her to his loving home and freed her from the pain.

Obituary

Mrs. Ellen Dixon was born October 25, 1944 and she was the oldest daughter of the late George and Evelyn Harris. On Monday afternoon, God entered her room at 4:55 p.m., fitted her wings, caught her by the hand and said my child its time to take your journey home “come, do not be afraid, its is a better place.”

Ellen gave her life to the Lord at Sutton Branch Baptist Church at an early age and she attended the schools of Kershaw County. She was an avid seamstress which led her to work in the garment industry.

She met and married the love of her life, the late Mr. Raymond Dixon.

She leaves to cherish her precious memories four sisters, Georgia (Carl) Smith and Martha Cornelius of Lugoff, SC, Jeanette Pearson of Winnsboro, SC and Roberta Qualls of Ridgeway, SC; four brothers, Coleal (Laura Bell) Boyd of Pontiac, SC, Pete (Lillie Bell) Harris, David (Minnie) Harris and Melvin “Charlie” Harris of Lugoff, SC; three god-children, Valencia Conde of Camden, SC, Jenelle and Deshawn Dubose of Columbia, SC; three brothers-in-law; seven sisters-in-law; one aunt; nieces, nephews and other loving relatives and many friends who loved her dearly.

In addition to her husband and parents, she was preceded in death by three brothers, Tillman Harris, Reverend Daniel Harris and Sylvester Harris.
