Obituary

Mr. James Simpson was born in Ridgeway, SC on May 14, 1936 to the late Ruben Simpson and Olivia Roseboro Simpson and he was educated in the Public Schools of Fairfield County. He departed his earthly life on Tuesday, November 5, 2019 at his residence in Charlotte, NC.

As a young adult, James worked for his brother, Albert Simpson, in the logging industry. When he moved to Charlotte, NC, he worked for Sealtest Ice Cream Company for 10 years. After he left Sealtest Ice Cream, he worked for Oakhurst Baptist Church for 25 years.

James loved gardening and music (piano and blues). He spent his free time watching Christian shows, old westerns, boxing and professional wrestling on television.

James is survived by his wife of 54 years, Betty Simpson; daughters, Cecilia (Clinton) Threatt of Stalling, NC; Serena Golf of Charlotte, NC; Deborah (Matthew) Hamilton of Jackson, TN, Angela (Dale) Mayes of Indian Trail, NC; Qunnice (Orum) Lide of Charlotte, NC and Michella (Lee) Hairston of Winston-Salem, NC; one son, James Simpson, Jr. of Charlotte, NC; 10 grandchildren and a host of great-grandchildren; three sisters, Bertha Simons, Teresa (Horace) Corley and Lois Minger; four brothers, Roosevelt (Josephine) Simpson, Joseph (Barbara) Simpson, Roy (Thelma) Simpson and George Simpson; a host of loving nieces, nephews and other relatives and friends.
