Acknowledgements

The family of the late Betty Ann Jackson Young would like to express their deepest thanks and appreciation for the love and kindness you have extended during their time of sorrow. Words cannot express their gratitude for your thoughtful prayers, calls, cards, visits, floral tributes, food, words and other gestures of love not mentioned. May the Lord keep each of you in his care.

Mother’s Love

A mother’s love will never die.
As we look upon the sky,
We will remember your beautiful smile.
No more weeping and no more sorrow,
Your work here is done.
Although life here will never be the same, the victory is won and we will forever love you; but, God loves you more
So, rest in peace. For your journey has begun.

Love,

Obituary

Gone Never Forgotten

Although you are gone, my love for you will never die.
You are my sunshine, my only sunshine!
Through the good and bad, you made me whole.
I will forever cherish the life we shared.

As I think why?!
I don't know, but I do know that when God chose an Angel,
When he chose you, he chose the best.
Until we meet again, take your rest!
Your,

Loving Husband, Charles

"For I am already being poured out like a drink of offering, and the time for my departure has come. As I have fought the good fight, I have finished the race, I have kept the faith. Now there is in store for me the crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous Judge, will award to me on this day and not only to me, but also to all who have longed for his appearing."
2 Timothy 4:6-8

Mrs. Betty Ann Jackson Young was the daughter of the late James Jackson and Maggie Owens Jackson. She was born on September 21, 1956 in Fairfield County and she departed this earthly life on Saturday, November 9, 2019 at Providence Health Hospital in Columbia, SC.

Betty attended the Fairfield County Public Schools and graduated in the Class of 1974. She was employed at Louis Rich and she later became employed at the Fairfield County Board of Disability.

At an early age, Betty began her Christian walk at Blackjack Baptist Church in Winnsboro, SC. She later became a member at River of Life Christian Center in Winnsboro, SC where she was a devoted deaconess, Sunday school teacher, as well as, the Mother of the Church.

Betty was a devoted wife, mother and grandmother to her children. She has touched so many lives with her humble spirit.

Betty leaves to cherish her precious memories her devoted husband, Deacon Charles Young; one son, Rondy Jackson; two daughters, Latoria Jackson (Anthony Thompson) and Charlotta Young (Morris Millings); three grandsons, Anthony Thompson, Jr, Morris Millings, III and Mayson Millings; one brother, Robert Jackson of Columbia, SC; three brothers-in-law; three sisters-in-law and a host of nieces and nephews.

The family would like to give a special thanks to Mrs. Shirley Green (niece/sister) for caring for our mom until the end.

In addition to her parents, Betty was preceded in death by four sisters; Julia Jackson, Alice R. Johnson, Cora M. Jackson and Marie Jackson; three brothers, James Jackson, Jr., Leroy Jackson, and Clarence Jackson; her father-in-law, Willie J. Young and her mother-in-law, Kathleen Rawls Young.
