Christian Journey

On this Christian Journey, I know sometimes it gets hard
But we should be a witness to others who have not made a start

In the world you have trials and tribulations
Jesus promised to be there to help you out of any situation
So whatever you are going through: I want you to know
Jesus Christ has already walked this road before
I know it's going to get hard along this holy way
But hold on Saints, there will be a better day
Sometimes it looks like you are all alone and seem like nobody cares

We know that Jesus promised that he will always be there Never worry about tomorrow or what the future may bring Just pray for strength and courage; trust in his holy name
Never grow discouraged, be patient and just wait
For God never comes too early and he will never be too late
God is all we need, he will never leave us alone
He gave us his Holy Spirit to help us make it home
“You made it home Boo”
