Obituary

Clarence Sherman Goodwin, Jr. was called home to glory on Friday, January 10, 2020 at Providence Health Hospital in Columbia, SC. He was born May 11, 1963 in Kershaw County to Clarence Sherman Goodwin, Sr. and the late Nora Bell Goodwin. He attended the Public Schools of Kershaw County and he lettered in football at Lugoff-Elgin High School.

At the young age of 28, he married Shirley Bell and they raised their two sons in Ridgeway, SC. Clarence was a member of Mt. Calvary Church of God in Christ where he served dutifully until his health declined.

Clarence was a career truck driver carrying numerous classifications on his license. His career was highlighted with stops at BP, Sloan Construction, Palmetto Paving and most recently a distributor from a Home Depot subsidiary. Clarence loved to work and enjoyed his numerous jobs.

Clarence travelled to see family with whom he loved spending time, he liked going to church and he liked watching sports. He was an avid sports fan and his favorite teams were the USC Gamecocks and the Seattle Seahawks. Every year Clarence would enjoy hosting Super Bowl parties with his loved ones.

He leaves to cherish his memories; his son, Trevon (Valencia) Goodwin, Sr.; his father, Clarence (Mary) Goodwin, Sr; two grandchildren, Trevon Goodwin, Jr. and Danyelle Lee; his step-son, Kobina Robinson; three step-grandchildren, Tierra Robinson, Dedrick Robinson and Devonte Robinson; his loving sister, Valerie Goodwin; a host of other loving relatives and friends.
