Acknowledgements

We, family of the late Pearl Grant wish to express our gratitude and appreciation to our family and friends for the many expression of kindness shown during the passing of our mother. A special thanks to Mrs. Elizabeth Holiday and Mr. Leo Scott, Jr. for their dedication and support during Pearl's extended illness.

Your Mother

Although you cannot hear her voice, or see her smile no more.
Your mother walks beside you still, just as she did before.
She listens to your stories and she wipes away your tears
She wraps her arms around you, and she understands your fears
It's just she isn't visible to see with human eye
But talk to her in silence and her spirit will reply
You'll feel the love she has for you; you'll hear her in your heart
She's left her human body, but your souls will never part.

Obituary

Mrs. Pearl “Johnnie Mae” Grant, daughter of the late Johnnie Martin and the late James and Viola Brown Harrison, was born at home on November 18, 1938 in Kershaw County, SC. She entered into eternal rest on Monday, September 28, 2020 at Prisma Health Richland Hospital in Columbia, South Carolina.

Pearl was a life-long member of Rock Hill Baptist Church in Ridgeway, SC and she was a proud graduate of Jackson High School in Camden, SC. Of the many jobs and titles, she had throughout her life, the one that she was most proud and gave her the most joy was being “NANA.” Her love for children was evident and still echoes through the many lives she touched over the years. Pearl also loved to cook and was known throughout the community for her spicy, from scratch, Thanksgiving stuffing, her delicious sweet potato pies, and her famous homemade lemonade.

Pearl was an original member of the Golden Stars and a proud member of the John L. Chestnut Choral Group and the Inspirational Mass Choir of Camden, SC. She loved the Lord and wasn’t afraid to tell the world that she was saved, sanctified and filled with the Holy Spirit.

Those left to cherish her memories, are her three daughters, Burlene Tharpe of Henrico, VA, Annetta Grant and Jackie Showell of Camden, SC; two sons, George (Deloris) Grant of Camden, SC and Calvin Grant of New York, NY; three sisters, Barbara Williams of Ridgeway, SC, Mozelle Bennett of Lugoff, SC and Etta Roseborough of Ridgeway, SC; nine grandchildren, eleven great-grandchildren; two sisters-in-law, Bernice Martin of Patterson, NJ and MaeHelen Martin of New Haven, CT; also left to cherish her memory special friend and caretaker, Jacqueline Eddings; and a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.

Pearl was preceded in death by three sisters, Rachel Martin, Evelyn Scott and Estelle Harrison; two brothers, Calvin Martin and Decatur Martin and two grandchildren, George Grant Jr. and Elizabeth Hope Tharpe.
