After the Glow

I’d like the memory of me to be a happy one

I’d like to leave an after-glow of smiles,
When life is done.

I’d like to leave an echo whispering softly down the ways,

Of happy times and laughing times and bright and
sunny days,
When life is done.

I’d like the tears of those who grieve, to dry before the sun,

Of happy memories that I leave,
When life is done.

Obituary

A Time to Begin

Mrs. Mary Williams Mason was born on June 23, 1922 in Ridgeway, SC to the late Wade and Amanda Richardson Williams.

A Time to Grow

She received her formal education at Thorn Tree School in Ridgeway, SC. At an early age, she joined White Oak Baptist Church #2, where she faithfully worshipped and served until relocating to New York City where she continued her Christian walk at the Macedonia Baptist Church in Mount Vernon, NY. She served in many capacities at Macedonia Baptist Church.

A Time to Love

In 1948, she married Bishop Philip Morris. They were happily married for 17 years until he entered eternal rest.

Many years later in 1968, she married Mr. Clarence Mason. This marriage was happy and prosperous for 22 years until he departed this earthly life in 1991.

A Time to Cherish

After retirement, she returned home to Ridgeway, SC and reestablished her membership at the White Oak Baptist Church #2, where she resumed her work and walk of faith.

She exemplified the true Fruits of the Spirits with her daily walk with everyone with whom she came in contact. To know her, was to love her.

She leaves to cherish her beautiful memories, one sister, Mrs. Thelma Harris of New Haven, CT; one step-daughter, Mrs. Dorothy Brown of Mount Vernon, NY; and a host of adopted children, grandchildren, great-grandchildren and many nieces, nephews, relatives and friends.

Mrs. Mason was preceded in death by three brothers, Cleo Williams, Melvin Williams and Robert T. Williams; and one sister, Mrs. Ruth W. Moore.
