Crossing Over

Oh, please don't feel guilty

It was just my time to go.

I see you are still feeling sad,

And the tears just seem to flow.

We all come to earth for our lifetime,

And for some it's not many years

I don't want you to keep crying

You are shedding so many tears.

I haven't really left you

Even though it may seem so.

I have just gone to my heavenly home,

And I'm closer to you than you know.

Just believe that when you say my name, I'm standing next to you,

I know you long to see me,

But there's nothing I can do.

But I'll still send you messages

And hope you understand,

That when your time comes to cross over, I'll be there to take your hand.

Obituary

Our Sister, Friend, and Matriarch, Bettye Jean Young, entered into eternal rest on Friday, November 20, 2020 at Prisma Health Richland Hospital in Columbia, SC. Bettye answered the Master's call and departed this life of seventy-seven years from this earthly journey.

Bettye was born in Winnsboro, South Carolina on August 18, 1943 and she was the daughter of the late Robert "Butch" and St. Mary Brice Young. Bettye was educated in the public schools of Fairfield County.

She was employed with the Fairfield County School system for over forty years until her retirement.

Bettye was a faithful member of the United House of Prayer For All People and served diligently in several capacities for many years. Even during her declining health, she remained a faithful worker. She served as a Maid under Bishop Daddy Grace. As a member of the McCullough Burning Bush, she was known for her favorite song "No Coward Soldier." Bettye was past president of the Young Adult Ushers and the Youth Department, and she supported other auxiliaries and groups. Often being recognized as a top contributor here in Winnsboro, the State of South Carolina and several organizations, she was a diligent contributor to the "G" Class Program.

In her spare time, she enjoyed traveling, spending time with family and friends, and listening to gospel music. She loved electronic devices, whether it was the latest Smart Phone or TV. If it was gadget, she had to have it.

Bettye was known for her infectious smile and giving heart. She was always willing to be a helping hand to family and friends.

Those left to celebrate her life are her nephew, Troy Boulware, of the home (whom she reared as a son); one brother, Billy (Margaret) Young of Blackstock, SC; one sister, Cora Carter of Chester, SC; two devoted nieces, Tanisha (Anthony) Patterson of Charlotte, NC and Jazlyn Young of Blackstock, SC; Sean Nettles of the home (whom she reared as a grandson) and his mother, Juliette Nettles, (whom she loved as a daughter); one uncle, Mack Smith of Winnsboro, SC; two aunts, Dora Brice and Grace Owens of Baltimore, MD; two god-daughters, Samira "Toot" Jackson and Sharonda Key; and a host of nieces and nephews; special friends, St. Dorothy Sunkins, Louella Inman, Martha Armstrong, and Judy Murphy.

In addition to her parents, Bettye was preceded in death by a brother, Robert "Bobby" Young; a sister, Geraldine Young; and god-parents, Elder Jessie (Lucinda) Belton.

The memories of Bettye Jean Young will forever be embraced in the hearts, minds, and souls of all who loved her dearly.

To Those I Love

When I am gone, just release me, and let me go

So, I can move into my after glow
You must not tie me down with your tears;

Let's be happy that we had so many years.

I gave you my love,
You can only guess how much you gave me happiness.

I thank you for the love you each have shown,

But now it's time I traveled on alone.
So grieve for me awhile, if grieve you must,

Then let your grief be comforted with trust.

It's only for a while that we must part,
So bless the memories within our heart,

And then when you must come this way alone,

I'll greet you with a smile and a

"Welcome Home"
