Perfect Rose

Perfect Rose oh Perfect Rose,
How your petals bloomed.
Hand-picked by God for His garden,
Never to be forgotten, gone too soon.

A stranger you never met,
A friend to all you tried to be.
You were an example of a soldier of the Lord,
What a beautiful sight to see.

Sleep on our mother, our sister, our friend,
We'll miss your smile, your generous ways.
Waiting until we see you again,
How we count the days.

So Perfect Rose, oh Perfect Rose,
When we meet in the great by and by.
Watch over us, help to guide us,
Until we see you again on high.

In loving memory of
