Acknowledgements

We, the family of the late Geraldine Squirewell, would like to extend our heartfelt thanks to each of you for all acts of kindness shown to us during our bereavement. May God continue to bless and keep each of you.

Miss Me – But Let Me Go

When I come to the end of the road and the sun has set for me.

I want no rites in a gloom-filled room. Why cry for a soul set free?

Miss me a little—but not too long; and not with your head bowed low.

Remember the love that we once shared,

Miss me—but let me go.

For this is a journey that we all must take and each must go alone.

It's all a part of the Master's plan; a step on the road to home.

When you are lonely and sick of heart; go to the friends we know

And bury your sorrows in doing good deeds.

Miss Me—But Let me Go!

Obituary

“Who can find a virtuous woman? For her price is far above rubies. The heart of her husband doth safely trust her, so that he shall have no need of spoil.” Proverbs 31:10-11

Mrs. Geraldine Johnson Squirewell was born on July 14, 1950 to Arnetha B. Johnson and the late Wardelle J. Johnson, Sr. She attended Geiger Elementary School and graduated from Fairfield High School in 1968. She was employed at Allied Chemical Company/Shaw for 30 years and she was also employed part-time with the Fairfield County School System.

At an early age, she joined Mt. Pisgah Baptist Church. After marrying the love of her life, Herbert, she later became a member of Lebanon Presbyterian Church.

Geraldine is survived by her husband of 46 years, Herbert Squirewell; two sons, Darrelle “Tiger” and Cedric (Shawn) Squirewell; her mother, Arnetha B. Johnson; brothers, Donald (Mary) Johnson, Wardelle Johnson, Jr. and Floyd Johnson; sisters, Margaret A. Moore, Dr. Janet Johnson (Dr. Thomas T. Hunter); five grandchildren, Zhavin Tyriss, Izaiah K’lish, Clinton James, Mariah Johnson and Avery Simone; mother-in-law, Mrs. Henrietta Squirewell; brothers-in-law, Elijah (Lois) Squirewell and Bernard (Henrietta) Squirewell; sisters-in-law, Bessie Beaty, Francine Jackson, Sharon Boulware (Oliver) and Margaret Viren Moore; a host of aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, cousins and friends who will miss her dearly.
