Notes of Appreciation

We, the family of Ms. Rosa Lee Turner wish to express profound gratitude for all acts, deeds and gestures of love shown during the time of health, illness and initial bereavement period of our beloved. A special thank you is extended to Marcus, Choice, Mr. & Mrs. Randall Cornelius, Bernice AKA NeeNee Mitchell, and Kindred Home Care. It is our prayer that God will bless each of you richly in ways immeasurable.

I Must Go

I must go, I have no choice, and the calling is from God’s own voice.

His voice I know, I’ve heard it often, now angels bare my soul aloft.

If you must grieve, don’t grieve for me. I must join
God who sets me free.

These wings that bare my soul above, are workers for this God of love.

My life was good, but now its past, the memories of my joy will last.

Don’t let this sorrow in you remain, for it is God who calls my name.

A friend I tried to be to all, yet I must leave, for heaven calls.

I loved life and all life shared, I cherished all the time I spent there.

If I could have my way I’d stay, but God has said my time is through.

These wings that bare my soul above, are workers for this God of love.

Obituary

Rosa Lee Turner was born in Winnsboro, SC on October 13, 1932 to the late Samuel and Carrie Canty Harrison. She entered into eternal rest Thursday, July 15, 2021 at Prisma Heart Hospital in Columbia, SC.

She attended Fairfield High School in Fairfield County. As a young adult, she moved to Jersey City, NJ where she worked as a nursing assistant for over 35 years at Greenville Jewish Hospital.

Rosa never had any children of her own, but took her nieces and her nephews under her wing. When she became an entrepreneur in New Jersey and opened her own business, she would hire her sisters and nieces and teach them the trade. She loved cooking, laughing and taking care of others. She also enjoyed fishing and traveling.

She loved the Lord and was a member of White Oak Baptist Church #1 where she served faithfully on the user board.

Precious memories of Rosa Lee will linger in the hearts of her two sisters, Mary Henderson of North Augusta, GA and Annie Mae Thomas of Pacolet, SC; her brother, Frank (Cora) Harrison of the home; brothers-in-law, Bobby J. Mitchell of Pacolet, SC and Lucius Boyd of Columbia, SC; special caregivers, Odell and Lisa Canty of Ridgeway, SC; a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.

In addition to her parents, Rosa was preceded in death by three sisters, one brother, one sister-in-law and two brothers-in-law.
