The family of the late Mrs. Mary C. Williams would like to express their sincere and heartfelt thanks to everyone for your visits, calls, cards, flowers, and prayers, as well as, all of your acts of kindness to them during their bereavement.

Weep Not for Me

Weep not for me though I am gone
Into that gentle night
Grieve if you will, but not for long
Upon my soul's sweet flight
I am at peace, my soul is at rest
There is no need for tears.
For with your love, I was so blessed
For all those many years.
There is no pain, I suffer not,
The fear now all is gone.
Put now these things out of your thoughts
In your memory, I live on.
Remember not my fight for breath
Remember not the strife
Please do not dwell upon my death,
But celebrate my life.

Obituary

Mary Carolyn Woods Williams was born on Sunday, May 10, 1964 in Ridgeway, South Carolina. She was the eighth of nine children born to Rosia L. Woods. Mary was the beautiful wife of Roger Williams for 37 years and she was also the proud and devoted mother of two beautiful children, Danay and Roger, II. Mary was also the grandmother of twin boys, Grayson “Gray” and Sebastian “Bash” Parker.

Mary had an unwavering faith in God. It was this faith that moved her forward through life. She was called home on Sunday, August 29, 2021. She is missed beyond words.

Mary “Carolyn” was heavily involved in early childhood education most of her life. She was influential in shaping young minds and raised generations of children around the world. She dedicated her life to educating others; especially, her grandsons. After their birth, she devoted herself to her daughter’s success as a new mother and her beloved grandsons’ development. Mary stayed with her daughter and son-in-law off and on for years taking time out to ensure her grandsons received the best from the very beginning. She was not a stranger to lending a helping hand, a listening ear or advice to anyone in need.

As a military wife, she traveled the world during her husband’s United States Air Force career. Italy and Japan held a special place in her heart. Mary developed a love for travel that continued after their retirement from the Air Force and would last a lifetime.

Mary enjoyed telling jokes and stories that would light up her face and everyone else’s as well. She also found pleasure in spending quality time with her grandsons and all her friends and family, especially, her two big sisters, Beatrice and Martha.

Those that will forever cherish her memory are her husband, Roger Williams; daughter Danay (Benjamin) Parker and son Roger Williams, II; twin grandsons, Grayson and Sebastian Parker; her mother, Rosia L. Woods; three brothers, Eddie J. (Bobbi) Woods, George Woods and Albert Woods; two sisters, Martha (Robert) Alexander and Beatrice (Thomas) Barber; mother-in-law, Willie Williams; one sister-in-law, Arlene (Albert) Mack; three brothers-in-law, Ronnie Williams, Rudy Williams and Ricardo Williams; a host of uncles, aunts, nieces, nephews, cousins and other loving relatives and friends.

“In this life, everyone shall have a valley experience; but those that hold on to God know while they’re going through, Jesus shall never leave you nor forsake you.” John P. Kee

We love you Mom. Rest In Peace.
