Acknowledgements

The family of the late Bozie Palmer, Jr. would like to express their sincere and heartfelt thanks to everyone for your acts of kindness to them during their bereavement.

If You Could See Me Now

If you could see me now, you wouldn't shed a tear.
Though you may not understand why I'm no longer here.
Remember my spirit, that's the real me.
I'm still very much alive, oh, if you could only see!
I've beheld our Father's face. I've touched my Savior's hand.

The angels all rejoiced as I entered the Promised Land.
Beyond the gates of pearl, I walk on golden streets.
I've touched the walls of jasper, dipped my foot in the crystal sea.

The beauty is beyond words, nothing can compare.
I've even seen your mansion; someday I will meet you there.

Allow Jesus to be your guide, His word will show you the way.

So, please, don't cry! We will meet again someday!

Obituary

Bozie Palmer Jr., was the oldest son of the late Bozie, Sr. and Alice Griffin Palmer and he was born July 3, 1943 in Richland County, SC. After an extended illness of various issues, he departed this life on Thursday morning, September 23, 2021 at his home in Columbia, SC. He was 78 years old.

After high school, he sought employment with Niggel Brothers Associates. After years of employment with the company, he left and became a self-employed Master Tile Setter. He enjoyed that life until his health declined.

Because he learned farming at an early age, some of his beneficial hobbies of creativity included gardening and cooking dishes that were enjoyable; but could not be found at your favorite deli.

At an early age, he joined Macedonia Baptist Church serving in several capacities to include Sexton, Trustee and was ordained as Deacon in 2011. Those tenures continued until his death.

He leaves to cherish his memory a loving wife of more than 57 years, Earnestine Gripper Palmer; two sons, Desi (Beryl) Palmer and Stefan Palmer of Columbia, SC; two daughters, Gwendolyn (Wayne) Blackwell of Houston, Texas, and Delicia (Kelvin) Singleton of Blythewood, SC.; eleven grandchildren and nine great-grandchildren; three sisters Dorothy (George) Wilson and Edna Grier of Blythewood, SC, and Virginia Paulding of Ridgeway, SC; one brother, Ronnie Palmer of Blythewood, SC; three sisters-in-law, Hattie Grant of Columbia, SC, Clara St. Clair of Chicago, IL, and Mary Ann Gripper of Columbia, SC; two brothers-in-law, Thomas Palmer of Blythewood, SC and Joseph (Mazie) Gripper of Cassett, SC; two aunts, Maxine Canzater and Nettie Benson of Blythewood, SC; two uncles, John Griffin of Lancaster, SC and Harry (Bernice) Griffin of Blythewood, SC. His memory and legacy will be carried out by a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends who will miss him dearly.
